THE GROWN-UPS' FAIRYLAND.

(Verna Loveday Harden.) We often envy children playing A simple little game, And wish that we could go e-Maying, And lay to joy such claim.

But the' our play is not so merry, And not so clear our sky, Our grievances we often bury, To sear with Fancy high.

For grown-ups have imagination, And in their Fairyland Are beauties of their own creation, And gifts from Fancy's hand.

In Fairyland, their ev'ry longing Is lavishly fulfilled, And joys they long have wished come thronging By Fancy kindly willed.

When wearily they seek seclusion, The thoughtful Fairies pile Before them ev'ry sweet delusion, Till they begin to smile.

But we have cause to envy childhood, For we must leave our play, While, in their Fairyland's great wild-They laugh thro' all the day.

While flowers at our feet are falling, And sunbeams light our way. We hear the voice of duty calling,

In the train of the early symptoms closely follow lumbago, sciatica, rheumatism, swollen joints and other serious maladies. Everyone should watch closely for the first indication that the kidneys are failing to remove the poisons from the blood stream. NAMERICAN BOOMS

During the year 1919, the people of Canada bought 613,644 boxes of Gin Pills. On the basis of the 1911 census, that is one box to every twelfth per-son, man, woman and child in Canada and New-foundland. Surely these figures point significantly to Gin Pills as the one remedy for kidney and bladder trouble.

"For two years, I was an invalid, incapable of work of any kind. Sinteen months of this time, I was unable to move without the assistance of a crutch and a case. During this time, I took medicines, but did not improve, and had about given up hope of ever being of any use again, when a friend advised me to try Gin Pills. This I did, and within two months was as well a man as ever I was. This was four years ago, and I have had so return of my trouble since. I still use a box or two as a preventative, and are rabled to go dashing and shooting in the Spring and Fall, and lie out on the ground at night without any incon-yeasnee.
