MELBOURNE

Considerable excitement was caused about two o'clock Thursday morning when the telephone central rang a fire alarm into the homes of the village and vicinity. When Wilson Richards' sile was being filled on Wednesday, a fire broke out in a pile of wood joining the barn twice during the day, but was soon put out. During the night Mrs. Richards was awakened by the crackling of flames. Looking out, she discovered that the wood was again on fire. Thanks to the telephone, over 20 cars loaded with men and buckets arrived on the scene in a few minutes. The fire was extinguished before any damage was done to the barn.

The members of the congregation of the Presbyterian church here surprised Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Elder by meeting at the manse and expressing their good wishes and appreciation in the form of a shower of fruit, vegetables, etc. At the close of a most enjoyable evening a lunch was served by the ladies.

Did you hear the wedding bells ring on Thursday, Sept. 25, when Miss Eva Parr, one of Melbourne's most popular young ladies, was united in marriage to Gilbert McLean of Elkfrid? The happy couple have the best wishes of their many friends in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. John McEachern of Cambellton called on friends here recently.

The church was tastefully and beautifully decorated with grains, fruits, flowers and autumn leaves.

A large crowd gathered in Knox church basement Friday evening to farewell Mr. and Mrs. Stuart McCallum and children. After several speeches they were presented with a set of community silver knives, forks and spoons, and John D. and Janet each with a Bible. A social evening was spent and a splendid lunch served. Mr. and Mrs. McCallum leave this week for Walkers.

Wednesday last was an ideal day for our school fair. A good crowd turned out and everybody seemed to enjoy the fair. The large tent was well filled with splendid exhibits. To see the fine display of vegetables one would feel we surely dwell in a favored land. The bread, cakes, cookies, eggs, flowers and fancy work would do credit to any large fair. The writing and maps, too, were very good. Then the chickens, pigs, colts and calves gave the judges a hard task, for all were so good. A good game of baseball between Wardsville and Newbury Juniors resulted in favor of the former. There were all sorts of races, too. In the evening the Imperial Male Quartette of London put on a good concert, winding up a splendid day.

ARE THE DAYS OF MIRACLES OVER?

IS SUPERSTITION AND FALSE BELIEF TO OVERSHADOW FACTS ANY LONGER?

When a woman who has been sick for years becomes well after taking a certain scientific preparation—can you deny that the remedy must be good? Read these extracts taken from a letter written to us by Mrs. H. Cross, of 362 King Street West, Toronto:—

"I suffered for several years with inflammatory Rheumatism and could hardly get up or down stairs. My husband bought me a box of Templeton's Rheumatic Capsules, and almost immediately I felt relief. The swellings started to go down and the stiffness left my knees. I might say that previously to using T.R.C.'s I had tried almost everything under the sun without success. I am a happier and wiser woman now, and I cannot thank you enough for the aid T.R.C.'s have given me."

It's the same story from hundreds of other Rheumatic sufferers. They tried T.R.C.'s and T.R.C.'s fixed them up. If you suffer, try them.

H. I. Johnston, Phm. B. druggist, optician and stationer, sole agent for Glencoe. Mail $1.04 to the above address or to Templeton's, 142 King St. W., Toronto. T. R. C.'s will be sent postpaid.

The Why? of Another Victory Loan

WHEN, on the morning of November 11th, 1918, the guns were hushed and glad tidings flashed across the world, there followed with the Nation's Prayer of Thanksgiving, one yearning query, which found echo in the faster beating hearts of wives, mothers, fathers, brothers, sisters and sweethearts. That query was, "How soon will our boy be home?" And, from France and Flanders, from Italy and Egypt, from Palestine and from far-off Siberia, there came an answering echo, "How soon, how soon, may we go home?"

CANADA caught the spirit of these longings, and at once resolved to satisfy them. It was an appalling task. Shipping was tragically scarce. The composition of the Army of Occupation had not then been settled. And other parts of the Empire as well as Canada were looking for the speedy return of their men.

THE problem was this. The half-million men that Canada had overseas had taken more than four years to transport to the field of battle. To bring them home in a few months was a gigantic undertaking—one to tax all Canada's ingenuity and resources. Canada solved the problem, but it meant crowding into a few short months, an expense for demobilization which it was impossible to foresee.

THEN, too, besides the sentimental aspect of the necessity for bringing the men home quickly the economic side could not be overlooked. That was, to transform efficiently and speedily the nation's army of fighters into a national army of workers.

Need Divides Itself in Two Parts

(a) To finish paying the expenses of demobilization, and the obligations we still owe to our soldiers.

(b) To provide national working capital.

Obligations to Soldiers

The answer to the question "Why does Canada need another Victory Loan?" divides itself into two parts. (a) To finish paying the expenses of demobilization, and the obligations we still owe to our soldiers. (b) To provide national working capital.

The obligations to soldiers include: That already incurred cost of bringing home troops from overseas. The payment of all soldiers still undemobilized. This includes more than 20,000 sick and wounded who are still in hospital, and who of course remain on the Army payroll till discharged. The upkeep of hospitals, and their medical and nursing staffs, until the need for them is ended. These three items alone will use up at least $200,000,000 of the Victory Loan 1919.

Gratuities

There is also the gratuity which has been authorized, and has been and is being paid to assist soldiers to tide over the period between discharge and their re-adjustment to civil life. For this purpose alone, $61,000,000 must be provided out of the Victory Loan 1919, in addition to the $59,000,000 already paid out of the proceeds of the Victory Loan 1918.

Land Settlement

Furthermore, soldiers who desire to become farmers may, under the Soldiers' Land Settlement Act, be loaned money by Canada with which to purchase land, stock and implements. The money so advanced will be paid back; meantime each loan is secured by a first mortgage. Up to August 15th, 29,495 soldiers had applied for land under the terms of this Act; and 22,281 applications had been investigated, and the qualifications of the applicant approved. For this purpose Canada this year requires $4,000,000.

Vocational Training

For this work which, with the Vocational Training and Soldiers' Service Departments, embraces the major activities of the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment, an appropriation of $57,000,000 is necessary.

Those who give thought to our outstanding obligations to soldiers, and to our need for national working capital, cannot fail to be impressed with the absolute necessity for the
