LITTLE CHANGE IN STRIKE
SITUATION

ESSEN, April 7.—The strike situation here shows little change to-day. The street-car employees voted to join the Krupp workers, so that the eity's transportation system is at a standstill. Essen is also without light, because of as strike of firemen. In the Rhur industrial district, there was, as a whole, an increase yesterday in the total number of strikers.

SOVIET REPUBLIC NOT YET PROCLAIMED.

BERLIN, April 7.—There has been no definite news here concerning the situation in Munich since reports were less received of early exciting occurrences. From such news as reached Berlin er however, it seems probable that a Soviet government has not yet been proclaimed in any way that can be regarded as official or binding.

WOULD NOT GET FOOD FROM BERNE. April 7. (Rudolph Kommer) The establishment of an Austrian soviet republic by May 15 is forecasted in advices received from Vienna today. The Volkswehr has already gone over to the communists. The proposed soviet republic is being openly debated, it was reported. Socialists, who now control the government, are said to have discussed with the communists the possibility of a change in administration, declaring they are ready to surrender their power if the communists will assume responsibility for feeding the population. The socialists point out that a Bolshevist administration does not expect food from the entente. Hungarian bolshevik representatives, who participated in discussion, declared the readiness and ability of Hungarian soviet government to feed Austria. Count karolyi, former Hungarian premier, is reported to be in Vienna. The newspapers of Vienna, are fighting bolshevism. They emphasize the promise of entente diplomats to supply sufficient food for an "orderly population." Information from private sources indicates the situation in Austria is said to be in government in Budapest was still in office on Saturday and on that day Bela Kun, in a statement to a correspondent of the Associated Press, said that a proposition had been made to General J.
