Obituary
Kingess Farmer
Mr. K. Sweet of Antigonish died at St. Martha's Hospital on last Saturday morning. He entered the Hospital on April 20th, and departed peacefully, being suffering from diabetes, which trouble he quietly and patiently bore for a year or two, he was not in condition to rally. A man of enterprise and resource, he only in his life time successful in business, even though the field he chose was not a limited one. At the age of twenty-eight years he left his native home, Billtown, King's Co., N. S., and settled at County Harbour, Lunenburg Co., where he opened a general store. Here he was successful from the start, becoming quite prosperous. Twenty-two years ago he came to Antigonish, bringing out the large general hardware store conducted at the time by Alfred & Whidden. Since he has been very prominent in the business of Antigonish, acquiring a leading interest in a number of industries, general stores and becoming a member of the highest prices. Other occupations include farming, heavy business, professional literature, with a passion for reading, and a keen interest in financial matters. He took many chances but his judgment was good and his experience was wide, therefore he rarely miscalculated and was nearly always fortunate. Though quiet and unassuming, he took intelligent interest in Town affairs. As matters got appealed to him, he was ready to assist, and many who had temporary business troubles sought his aid, once with success. The funeral on Monday was largely attended. Friends displayed their regret by numerous floral offerings. He is survived by four daughters, and three sons, who have the sympathy of the community. —Antigonish Capital, May 15th.

Report
The funeral of the late Miss Elsie Weaver took place on Sunday afternoon, May 14th. The service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Knighton, (Congregational) assisted by Rev. Mr. Johnson, (Episcopal). The noticeable absence of Rev. A. E. Wheeler, late pastor of Kingsport Congregational Church, was much regretted.

Miss Weaver passed away very peacefully on Thursday, May 8th, after a long wearisome illness. Her patience through all that time of suffering, her kindly demeanour, and her exceptionally sweet disposition endeared her to the hearts of all, and her removal from our midst, is a loss indeed to the whole community.

The dearest sympathy is felt toward the bereaved parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Weaver, by brother Leslie Weaver, and her grandmother, Mrs. P. Weaver, and a large circle of relatives and friends. The exceptionally large gathering of friends who came from near and afar to pay their last respects to the deceased, and expressions of their sympathy towards the bereaved, leaves us in no manner of doubt as to the high esteem in which the family is held in Kingsport and neighbourhood.

"Oh, not in cruelty, not in wrath, the paper says that day, I was an applicant for the fair, and took the boys' award."

One again the readers of the Advertiser are asked to help in a great way, by saving the wrappers of Sarsaparilla Soap and sending them in to W. C. T. V. By an arrangement with the manufacturers money is received for coupons cut from surprise soap wrappers, and this goes to pay the salary of a lady who spends her time in the Union Depot, Toronto, aiding young girls who pass through alone, often without money or friends.

This work is done in connection with the Francis B. Willard Hall which is the only home where the work is strictly preventative, where girls over 16, and not convicted of crime can find a temporary home and safe shelter free of charge until situation is procured.

Mrs. J. E. Neville will gladly receive all coupons before May 24th make an effort and send them at once.
