LOCAL ITEMS

—Newport Chocolates at McClary's.

—Cash for hides—E. D. Wilson & Son.

—Nice, sleeping, dressed doll only 29 cents at Thompson's.

—Last week Brockville organized a board of trade with over 100 members. Mr. Jas. H. Gilmour is president.

—All kinds of table delicacies to be found in a city store, at Thompson's.

—The Methodist S.S. will hold their annual entertainment on Christmas night, as usual, and preparations for the great event are now in progress.

—Miss Rose McMullen has been paid $850 by the Town of Brockville for damages sustained by stepping into a hole in the sidewalk.

—New Dinner and Toilet sets of all descriptions, at Thompson's.

—At the close of school on Monday the principal of the A.M.S. delivered an address to the teachers in training on the subject of "The State," and at the close was presented with a cordial vote of thanks.

—By far the largest and best stock of Crockerly in Athens, at Thompson's.

—Owing to ill-health, Miss Byerson has been obliged to resign her position on the teaching staff of the A. H. S. On the eve of her departure, she was presented with a handsome volume of poems by the students.

—The display of Xmas goods at McClary's is attracting a lot of attention.

—On Thursday night the Reporter's tested, tried and true thermometer registered 22 deg. below zero. Other instruments in the village scored below this, and in Brockville at the G.T.R. station, the record was 27 below.

—Don't worry about your Xmas gift for "him"—come to us for your selection—LeClair, Brockville.

—If Brockville's new board of trade takes the Times' advice it will maintain a discreet silence and go "still-hunting" for new industries. If the game should escape perhaps the news papers will be permitted to tell how it happened.

—The finest range of Xmas neckwear, from 15c to 75c, at LeClair's Brockville.

—Last week Miss Tessie Adams of Westport received the pleasing intelligence that her Junior Teacher's certificate had been granted by the Education Department. Miss Adams was a pupil at the A.H.S. last term and was taken ill while writing on the exams.

—Lamps and Lamp Goods, Jardinieres and Vases—wonderful combinations of beauty and utility—at McClary's. See these goods and learn the prices.

—Miss Pearl Lester, Renfrew, and Charles A. Bell Kearney, Ont., were married by Rev. W. S. Jamieson, M.A., last Thursday. Mackay's staff gave her a silver tea set, suitably engraved, and choir of the Methodist church gave her a music cabinet. Miss Lester was a visitor here last summer and is pleasantly remembered by a number of Athenians.

—Read G. A. McClary's adv't.

—Oysters at Wilson's Meat Market

—Over a score of buyers bid for the birds on Friday last.

—Extra value in 10 cent china—Thompson's.

—On Saturday last cheese sold in Brockville at from 10 1/2 to 11c.

—T. G. Stevens gives sensible suggestions in his adv't this week.

—The next session of the Division Court here will be held on Jan. 24.

—The wonderful Japanese!—See the display of their art work at McClary's.

—The village council will meet on Saturday next to wind up the business of the year.

—Miss Payne's millinery shop will close on December 24th. Those indebted will please call.

—Miss Eva Patterson, of The Rectory, left last week to spend Christmas at her home in Creemore.

—If you want to rent, lease, buy or sell, the "People's Column" of small adv'ts at 25c and 10c will help you.

—It has been decided to hold the annual District League convention in Athens on January 8th and 9th.

—Miss Alvira Freeman of Gouverneur, N. Y., is visiting at the home of her mother, Prince street.

—An odd pair of fancy tweed or worsted trousers makes an appropriate Xmas gift—LeClair's, Brockville.

—The regular statutory meeting of the council of Rear Yonge & Escott will be held on Saturday next, 15th, at 1 o'clock p.m.

—Recent court decisions indicate that the regular charge for letting loose "cuss words" on the streets of Brockville is $4.

—Hockey enthusiasts at Westport are forming a league, to consist of teams in nearby villages, and Athens has been invited to join.

—The members of the Holiness Movement have purchased a property Bank Street, Ottawa, for $14,000 and will establish a college there next Spring.

—Over in Merrierville the teacher in the junior department had 97 pupils on her roll and resigned because she thought the work too heavy. Only 97!

—A very sociable and enjoyable time is expected at the Tennyson entertainment in the Methodist church this (Wednesday) evening. Refreshments will be served at the close.

—Buy early is to buy wisely. The beautiful art goods at McClary's won't last long. The assortment is now complete and you are advised to select your present at once.

—Mr. Adam Duclon returned to Athens from Winchester last week. The high price of cheese is keeping factories open for an unusually long period.

—The modelites are now writing on their exams, which will continue during Thursday, and it is expected that the whole work will be finished on Friday.

—If you want to give him a suit of clothes, an overcoat, a hat or fur-lined cap, a pair of wool or fur-lined gloves, a necktie or a shirt, see our assortment—LeClair, Brockville.

—The model class of '06 has decided to hold an oratorical contest and has elected the following as competitors: Winnie Wiltse, Nada Richards, Edna Scott, Ambrose Shea and V. Gilbert. The date will be announced later.

—The large and beautiful display of burnt work in the store window of Messrs. J. P. Lamb & Son is attracting considerable attention. It was all executed by Mrs. S. C. A. Lamb, and the perfection of detail and artistic coloring are very creditable indeed.

—On Thursday evening last the teachers in training at the A.M.S. were very pleasantly entertained at the home of one of their number, Miss Winnie Wiltse, Church street. During the evening the principal of the school, Mr. C. R. MacIntosh, was presented by the budding teachers with an address and gold locket. The address was read by Mr. Ambrose Shea and the gift was tendered by little Gwen Wiltse.

23rd Anniversary

Wednesday evening last, on returning from the store where both had been busily engaged during the afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. McClary were very pleasantly surprised to find their home brilliantly illuminated, the dining room table elaborately decorated, and a sumptuous repast prepared. The figures "23" suspended above the table gave the key to the situation—it was the 23rd anniversary of their wedding, and Miss L. M. Blackburn had taken this agreeable way of reminding them of the fact. The Reporter extends congratulations.
