

pier, or shall be a stranger in blood, and such occupier shall be unwilling to undertake the removal and interment of such body, the said occupier shall at the same time give notice of such his unwillingness.

At whose expense the burial shall be.

IV. In all cases in which due notice shall not be given that such occupier as aforesaid is either unable or unwilling, as the case may be, to procure such removal and interment as aforesaid, the same shall be performed by or at the expense and procurement of such occupier; And in all other cases after such notice as aforesaid, such removal and interment shall be performed or procured by at the expense of the County or Municipality in which the place from which such body is removed may be situate.

Order for interment, if the notice be not given or the body buried within a certain time.

V. In case such notice as hereinbefore is required shall not be duly given, or in case such body be not removed for interment within the time required by the provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for a Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, or Coroner acting in the district in which such body may lie, upon information by any person or persons of such facts, to proceed to inspect the body, and if on enquiry he shall be satisfied that the same is within the meaning of this Act, he shall, by a warrant under his hand and seal, order to proceed to the immediate burial of such body.

Penalty on persons not giving the notice, or not burying the body as required by this Act.

VI. In case under the provisions of this Act any such occupier as aforesaid shall wilfully neglect to give such notice as is required by the third section of this Act, or having given such notice, and being liable under the same section to remove and inter the body therein notified, shall neglect to remove or to procure the removal and interment of such body, he shall in such case be liable to a penalty of to be recoverable with costs on the evidence of on complaint or information before Justice of the Peace; and to the recovery of such penalties all the provisions of any Act or Acts then in force relative to the performance of the duties of Justices of the Peace out of Sessions, with respect to summary convictions and orders, shall apply.

Order on Municipality for expenses of burial in certain cases.

VII. In case under the provisions of this Act any body shall be buried by it shall be lawful for any such Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, or Coroner, as aforesaid, to make in respect of the expenses incurred in such removal and interment, an order for such an amount as he may think fair and reasonable to be payable to and the same order shall on presentation be discharged or paid by the Treasurer of the Municipality or County in which is situate the place from which such body shall be removed for burial.

Municipality may recover expenses from relations in certain cases.

VIII. In case any County or Municipality shall, under the provisions of this Act, disburse the expense of the removal and interment of any body, it shall be entitled to demand and recover the same amount in a civil action in any Court of competent jurisdiction with costs, from the person or persons who may stand to the deceased in relationship of husband, wife, parent, or child, on due proof being given that the relation so sued has competent means to discharge such expenses, and that the relations of the deceased prior in the order of relationship hereinbefore given, are incompetent to defray such expenses or are beyond the jurisdiction of the Court.