

514

HISTORY
OF
KING WILLIAM'S WAR,
AND THE
CONSEQUENT NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN THE FRENCH AND INDIANS, IN AMERICA.

---

CHAPTER I.

An Account of the most remarkable Occurrences in Canada from the departure of the Vessels in the month of November, 1689 to the month of November, 1690.

Madam

The letters of last year and the more minute information of those who had the honor to pay you their respects on their arrival in France from this country, have made you fully acquainted with the condition in which Count (de Frontenac) found it, the agreeable manner in which he was received, the acclamations of the masses and the universal joy every one evinced at his happy return. All these things are already known and I shall not describe them. I have matters to relate to you infinitely more to his glory, and the actions which have been performed this year justify the idea that that people were truly inspired of God when they called him their liberator. He found himself forced to wage war on his children against his inclination; he employed all sorts of means to induce them to resume the same disposition with which