An Evening Out with Roger Doris

Kay Turner, the singing sweetheart of the 'Pig and Whistle Show' on CFTO TV is back once again at the Ascot Inn's Little Brown Jug Lounge with the Ken Stanley Trio.

Kay is a real crowd favourite and is just great at leading a sing-a-long.

Al and Ina Harris return again next week to the Valhalla Inn's Merry Mermaid Lounge.

This fine trio has almost made the Valhalla a home away from home.

Named after the Mendoza festival masks, pampas skins, Boleadoras and rebenques (whips) from Argentina and colorful woven wool ponchos from Chile are among the many South American items lining the dining room walls.

"We found so many beautiful things that we decided to have a boutique in Casa Mendoza where our customers could buy the things they liked in the dining rooms", said Furlani. The boutique also sells records, leather handbags and briefcases, costume jewellery, ceramics, pottery and colorful wall-hangings. As well as decorative items, Furlani brought back to Toronto trained chefs, cooks, waiters and the maitre d', Ernesto Saenz. They also discovered the Mendoza wines. "Of the 50 or so Mendoza wines, we chose half a dozen considered the finest on the continent", said Dennis. "They're com- Continued on next page Latin American music is the order of the evening at the new Casa Mendoza (formerly Dutch Sisters) on the Lakeshore. The group is called Los Morunos, and hail from Lima Peru.
