Draft synopsis for the assistance of the Committee concerning Senator Raymond, without recitals, which must precede any synopsis of this kind.

The pages where it refers to the Commons Report will be marked 'B' and where it refers to the Senate Committee will be marked 'A'.

The report of the Commons Committee in respect to Senator Raymond is found on Roman numeral page B26, and so far as it purports to deal with facts, is not in dispute by anyone.

Senator Raymond in answer to the findings of the Commons Committee; namely,

- (a) That he should have been more frank with the Committee and disclosed the $200,000 campaign contribution from Swezey;
- (b) That it was hardly conceivable that Swezey should pay this large sum of money over to Raymond unless he was satisfied that the Senator's influence had been or would be worth the money.
- (c) That it was remarkable that Senator Raymond did not insist upon making some explanation of his position in this regard in view of the evidence.

Senator Raymond replied to this before the Senate Committee by reading, not under oath, a written statement wherein he explained that at the time he gave his evidence before the Commons Committee there had been no mention of campaign funds and he was not asked anything about campaign funds; that if he had been so asked he
