

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | PAGE.   |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|
| Koskivara. . . . .                                                                                                                                                                                                | 104-108 |
| St. Olof. . . . .                                                                                                                                                                                                 | 108-109 |
| Yxenhult. . . . .                                                                                                                                                                                                 | 109-110 |
| Stafsjö. . . . .                                                                                                                                                                                                  | 111     |
| Russia. . . . .                                                                                                                                                                                                   | 111-112 |
| Germany: Beuerberg. . . . .                                                                                                                                                                                       | 112-114 |
| Feilenbach. . . . .                                                                                                                                                                                               | 114-115 |
| Triangel. . . . .                                                                                                                                                                                                 | 115-116 |
| Elisabethfehn. . . . .                                                                                                                                                                                            | 116-120 |
| Capacities of R. Dolberg's Peat Plants. . . . .                                                                                                                                                            | 121     |
| Costs of Plants. . . . .                                                                                                                                                                                   | 122-127 |
| Åbjörn Anderson's (A. Anrep's) . . . . .                                                                                                                                                                          | 123-126 |
| A. Heinen's. . . . .                                                                                                                                                                                              | 127     |
| Approximate Cost of Production of Machine FormedPeat Fuel under Canadian Conditions with Anrep'sMachine No. 1 B. Combined with MechanicalTransportation and Jakobson's Field Press. . . . . | 128-129 |

CHAPTER IV.

|                                                     |         |
|-----------------------------------------------------|---------|
| MANUFACTURE OF PEAT AND LIGNITE BRIQUETTES. . . . . | 130-170 |
| Drying Apparatus. . . . .                    | 132-136 |
| Steam Plate Drier. . . . .                          | 132-134 |
| Schulz Drier. . . . .                               | 134-135 |
| Cooling Apparatus. . . . .                   | 136     |
| Briquetting Presses. . . . .                 | 136-139 |
| Briquetting Plants. . . . .                  | 140-143 |
| Peat Briquettes. . . . .                     | 144-148 |
| 1. Nature of the Bog. . . . .                       | 144     |
| 2. Price of the Raw Material. . . . .               | 144-146 |
| 3. Steam or Fuel Consumption for Drying. . . . .    | 146     |
| 4. Labour Cost. . . . .                             | 147     |
| 5. Cost of Plant. . . . .                           | 147     |
| 6. Total Cost of Manufacture. . . . .               | 147     |
| 7. Competition with other Fuels . . . . .           | 147-148 |
| Canadian Peat Briquette Manufacture. . . . . | 148-157 |
| The Welland Plant. . . . .                          | 148-150 |
| The Beaverton Plant. . . . .                        | 150-157 |