

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER I.—Continued

izes Colonial Government—Rebuked by Louis XIV—Quarrels about etiquette—Tyranny—Effort at centralization—Control of church appointments—Meanness—Illicit fur trading—Quarrels with Governor Perrot, Abbé Féné-lon and the Intendant—Friendship of La Salle—Recall.....93-115

CHAPTER II.—Siege of Quebec.

Frontenac and New York—Failure of scheme—Returns to Quebec—Strengthens Montreal—Triple attack on Schenectady, Salmon Falls and Casco Bay—Hertel—English preparations—Disaster of English in Northern New York
—Frontenac dancing with Indians in Montreal—Hurries
to Quebec—Preparedness—Phipps' summons to surrender
—Reply of Frontenac—Repulse of the English—Fron-tenac's self-glorification.....116-130

CHAPTER III.—After the Siege.

Savage raids—English hostilities—Frontenac's pretended influence with the tribes—Invasion of Western New York—
At Onondaga and Oneida—Burning of a Christian Indian by the French—Complicity of Frontenac—Futility of the expedition—Frontenac's report of it to the King—Continuation of troubles at Quebec—The liquor traffic—Military disorders—Quarrels with the Bishop—Molière's
"Tartuffe"—Death of Frontenac.....131-143

LA SALLE

CHAPTER I.—First Failures.

La Salle's youth—Portrait—Befriended by the Sulpicians—Seigneurie at the Sault—Dreams of discoveries—Sale of estate—Expedition to Lake Erie—Return to Montreal—Lachine—Jolliet—Faillon's discussion of La Salle's discoveries—Renaudot and Bernou.....144-156

CHAPTER II.—Crève-cœur.

At Catarocqui—Fomenting disturbances in Montreal—