

other physical cause, from voting in the manner prescribed by this Part without the assistance provided herein in that behalf. R.S., c. 106, s. 34.

Voting
where no
lists.

39. If the county or city is one, in or for which the election law of the province where such county or city is situate does not require lists of voters to be made to entitle them to vote, any elector claiming his ballot paper shall declare his name, surname, addition and qualification, which shall be entered on a list kept for that purpose by the deputy returning officer.

Oath of qualification.

2. Before receiving his ballot paper such elector may be required by the deputy returning officer, or any elector or agent present to take the oath of qualification provided for in the last preceding section, to be administered by the deputy returning officer. R.S., c. 106, s. 35.

Mode of voting.

40. The elector on receiving the ballot paper, shall forthwith proceed into one of the compartments of the polling station and there mark his ballot paper, by making a cross in any part of the upper space if he votes for the petition, and in any part of the lower space if he votes against the petition, after which he shall fold it up, so that the initials on the back can be seen without opening it, and hand it to the deputy returning officer, who shall without unfolding it, ascertain by examining his initials and the number upon the counterfoil, that it is the same ballot he furnished to the elector.

Counterfoil
to be destroyed.

2. The deputy returning officer shall then detach and destroy the counterfoil, and immediately, and in the presence of the elector, place the ballot paper in the ballot box. R.S., c. 106, s. 36.

Electors to vote without delay.

41. Every elector shall vote without undue delay, and shall quit the polling station so soon as his ballot paper has been put into the ballot box. R.S., c. 106, s. 37.

As to ballot
paper.

42. No elector shall be allowed to take his ballot paper out of the polling station. R.S., c. 106, s. 38.

Voter unable to mark his ballot paper.

43. The deputy returning officer, on application of any voter who is unable to read or is incapacitated by blindness or other physical cause from voting in the manner prescribed by this Act, shall assist such voter by marking his ballot paper in the manner directed by such voter, in the presence of the sworn agents or of the sworn electors representing them in the polling station, and of no other person, and by placing such ballot paper in the ballot box. R.S., c. 106, s. 39.

Such voter
to be sworn.

44. The deputy returning officer shall require the voter making such application, before voting, to make oath of his
