

men of all races, creeds and schools of thought, and it sincerely hopes for a realization by all classes of the necessity of standing together in this time of awful crisis. The conditions are such that a long, strong pull all together is absolutely necessary for the salvation of the country.

*Issued by the Union Government Publicity Bureau 47 Slater St., Ottawa
Brantford Expositor Print*

