
GILBERT K. CHESTERTON

"Always entertaining."—New York Evening Sun.

"Always original."—Chicago Tribune.

Heretics

12mo. $1.50 net. Postage 12 cents

"His thinking is as sane as his language is brilliant."

—Chicago Record-Herald.

Orthodoxy. Uniform with "Heretics."

12mo. $1.50 net. Postage 12 cents

"A work of genius."—Chicago Evening Post.

All Things Considered

Cloth. 12mo. $1.50 net. Postage 12 cents

"Full of the author's abundant vitality, wit and unflinching optimism."—Book News.

George Bernard Shaw. A Biography

Cloth. 12mo. $1.50 net. Postage 12 cents

"It is a fascinating portrait study and I am proud to have been the painter's model."—George Bernard Shaw in The Nation (London).

The Napoleon of Notting Hill. A Romance. With Illustrations by GRAHAM ROBERTSON

Cloth. 12mo. $1.50

"A brilliant piece of satire, gemmed with ingenious paradox. Every page is pregnant with vitality."—Boston Herald.

The Ball and the Cross

Cloth. 12mo. $1.50

"The most strikingly original novel of the present season. It is studded with intellectual brilliants. Its satire is keener than that of Bernard Shaw. Behind all this foolery there shines the light of Truth. A brilliant piece of satire—a gem that sparkles from any point of view the reader may choose to regard it."

—San Francisco Bulletin.
