SEPTEMBER SQUIBS.

LADY (to janitor of Masonic Temple)—Here's a quarter, Pat, and will you show me the goat that I'm told the Free Masons keep here? "Would I bees showing it?" asked Pat. "If you please," replied the lady. "I always pick some of these long, silky, auburn hairs off my husband's coat when he has been to the lodge meeting, and I thought I'd like to see such a queer animal." "Quare, mum?" said the shrewd Pat. "He is that, mum. The color o' an Irish setter, mum. But shure the baste is sick today."

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP acts on the throat and lungs like magic, curing even the severest Coughs and Colds.

WHICH is the hardest of all soaps? Cast steel (Castile).

APROPPOS of the fascinations of golf, I heard the other day of a Scotchman, a retired minister of the kirk, who was deploring the tendency of the game to become a ruling passion, and also to induce bad language. "In fact," he said, "I had to give it up for that reason." "Give up golf!" exclaimed his friend. "No," said his reverence, "the meenistry."

"They poked a porous plaster into it, and then it began to play," is the way a boy described an organette.

HAGYARD'S YELLOW OIL cures Sprains, Bruises, Burns and Scalds.

CURRAN said to Father O'Leary (the wittiest priest of his day): "I wish you were St. Peter." "Why?" asked Father O'Leary. "Because," said Curran, "you would have the keys of heaven and could let me in." "It would be better for you," said O'Leary, "that I had the keys of the other place, for then I could let you out."

WHICH death would you prefer to die, Joan of Arc's or Mary Stuart's? Most people prefer Joan of Arc's, because they like a hot steak better than a cold chop.

B. B. B. is a reliable and successful cure for Dyspepsia.

WHAT is that which never asks any questions but requires so many answers? The door-bell.

PERFECT teeth are a crown of beauty. Use Ivory White Tooth Powder.
