

Common Council
may lay out a Street of such
width, not less
than thirty feet,
as they may think
proper, and make Regulations for the same.

or, Aldermen, and Commonalty, of the City of Saint John, shall be, and they are hereby fully authorized and empowered, if they shall deem it expedient, to lay out and establish a public Street or Highway, leading from the said Wharf on the South side of the Market Slip, West of the Store owned or occupied by John Ward, Esquire, to the Wharf formerly belonging to Thomas Horsefield, Esquire, now in the possession of Charles I. Peters, Esquire, of such width, and under such Rules and Regulations as they may deem necessary: Provided that such Street, so to be laid out, be not of a less width than thirty feet.

Houses not to be more than three stories high.

II. And be it further enacted, That no House or Store, hereafter to be built on the lines of the said proposed Street, shall be more than three stories in height, besides the gable.

Rights of the King
and other persons
saved.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to affect the Rights of the King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, or any person or persons, body politic, or corporate whatsoever.

CAP. VIII.

An Act to regulate the manner of driving and riding upon the public Roads.

Passed 5th April, 1828.

Preamble.

WHEREAS great inconvenience and delay is experienced, and often damage is sustained, by the practice of driving and riding upon the Public Roads, without any fixed or general Rule for regulating the same. And whereas it is believed that much good would arise to the Public, in establishing, by Law, the mode of driving and riding upon the Public Roads.
