Provincial Secretary brings down Public Accounts, and Messages.

The Speaker read the Messages as follows:

Messages read.

J. COLBORNE,

The Lieutenant Governor, with reference to the accompanying Statements of the Revenue and Expenditure of the Province, acquaints the House of Assembly that he shall have great satisfaction in directing such explanations to be afforded to the House, while the Annual Estimates are under consideration, as may facilitate the decision of the House in determining on the description of charges that should in future be included in the Estimate, for the support of the civil establishment and administration of Justice, and he suggests, that a reference to the Inspector General of Accounts, previously to a decision on this subject, in any instance in which Precedents are required, may probably prevent a recurrence of the embarrassment and great public inconvenience which has been experienced this year by several Departments, in consequence of the Salaries due to Public Officers, and the Contingent Accounts remaining unpaid.

Message from His Excellency, on the subject of the Estimates accompanying the Public Accounts.

His Majesty's Government has authorised the Salaries of the Surveyor General and Receiver General to be defrayed from the Territorial Revenue of the Crown.

Government House,
14th November, 1832.

J. COLBORNE,

The Lieutenant Governor transmits, for the information of the House of Assembly, certain Documents and Accounts which have been submitted to him, relating to the amount due to workmen employed in building the Parliament House. The sums mentioned in the Accounts, as well as those charged for preparing the building for the reception of the Legislature, are still unpaid.

Government House,
14th November, 1832.

The Clerk read the Schedule to the Accounts as follows:

UPPER CANADA.

Schedule of Accounts prepared to be laid before the Third Session of the Eleventh Provincial Parliament.

No. 1. Statement of Monies paid to the Receiver General of Lower Canada, from the 1st July, 1831, to the 1st Jan. 1832, arising from Duties collected at the Port of Quebec.

Schedule of Public Accounts.
