

IT IS GETTING COLD

A Snappy Stretch of Winter Weather Assured for the Carnival.

THE CHANGE LAST NIGHT

Particulars of the Different Events in the Sports This Week—The Conditions on Which the Handsome Cups Will Be Presented.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

Providence is carefully tempering the wind to the winter carnival. About 6 o'clock last night the weather took a sudden change. There was a flurry of snow that covered everything beneath it. The air, too, altered. Instead of the moist, sticky atmosphere that had made life a burden during the past week, the north wind came down frosty and snappy enough to put life into the most despondent sufferer from the prevalent la grippe.

As for THE MINER'S private weather shark, who predicted cold weather commencing at 8:23 on this morning, he is more than tickled at the change, for he has more than fulfilled his promise.

The details of the carnival program with the prizes offered and the conditions under which they are to be competed for, are as follows: MASQUERADE—At the rink, 9 p. m. Wednesday, ladies' first prize, sterling silver manicure set, value $12; second, gold chain bracelet, $10; Men's first, silver shaving mug, $9; Men's second, glass tobacco jar, $7; Girls' first, gold chain bracelet, $10; Girls' second, silver chain bracelet, $4; Boys' first, gold seal watch, $5; Boys' second, watch, $5. The judges in the masquerade will be Mayor Goodlee, Hon. T. Mayne Daly and G. A. Jordan, P. M.

COASTING RACES—At 10 a. m. on Thursday on Spokane street from Second to Columbia avenue, Girls only, first, sterling silver hair brush, value $7; second, ebony hand mirror, $5. Boys, first, watch, $5; second, seal watch, $4. Coasters with crews not to exceed six, first, six leather wallets, value $15; second, leather writing case, value $10. Judges, Mayor Goodlee, Alderman Lalonde, Sam Hall and G. A. Jordan.
