Bisons Win Eight and

Then Lose to Montreal Buffalo, May 30.—Montreal defeated Buffalo yesterday 10 to 6. The visitors got most of their hits in the second inning, when they scored eight runs, helped by some poor fielding. Buffalo played a good up-hill game after that, but could not overcome the visitors' early lead. The Bisons had won eight straight up to yesterday. Score:-

Newark Still Sliding;

Orioles Win Easily Newark, N. J., May 30.—Baltimore had little trouble defeating Newark yesterday, 6 to 3. Getting off to a good start, the Newark players went to pieces in the sixth inning, the visit-ors scoring four runs on hard hitting, combined with errors, and made two more runs the same way in the eighth.

SHOCKER WINS AGAIN; **************

Rochester, N.Y., May 29—Shocker's splendid pitching and "Red' Murray's batting allowed Toronto's Leafs to step on Rochester, and out of last place, yesterday afternoon. They won the opening game of the series here by a score of 5 to 0. Shocker had it all over Bill Ritter, who for a spell two years ago was a member of the Toronto club. He al-lowed but four widely-scattered hits, and not a Hustler reached third base 538 and not a rushing in any inning.

"The Power of Love," a comedy-"The Power of Love," a comedy-drama in four acts was given by the Frincess Players at the Colonial last right to a good-sized and well-pleas-ed house in spite of the rain. The story of the play—A wealthy young artist falls in love with a country girl. His parents refuse to receive her; smarting under the unjust repri-mands of her husband, she disappears, goes to college under an assumed name, acquires education and train-ing; a happy reunion is the final re-sult. The play is finely staged and every member of the company gave a splendid rendition of their several parts, especially, Miss Reid as "Mercy" the Country Cirl. An unusu-ally good display of feature photo-plays make up an excellent evening's entertainment.
