

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., NOV. 17, 1899.

Public Meeting.

There was a good attendance of rate-payers at the citizens' meeting which was held in the Temperance Hall at 8 o'clock on Monday evening.

Editorial Notes.

Quite a heavy snow-fall occurred early in the day on Sunday morning and was followed later in the day by rain which fell in torrents and washed the snow away.

Parts of Nova Scotia seem well adapted for sheep culture, and more of our farmers should be stocked with this profitable animal.

In our report of the meetings of the W. C. T. U. Convention in last issue we omitted to make mention of the very pretty rendered duet by the little daughters of Mr. F. P. Rockwell.

Rev. E. D. Miller, of Yarmouth, who was appointed by the committee of the Twentieth Century Fund of the Presbyterian church to visit the different congregations in the interests of the fund, was in Wolfville on Tuesday and visited the members of the congregation of St. Andrew's church.

Archibald Forbes, the war correspondent, describing the act of man Gen. Buller is, says: "Here was a man with some six thousand a year, a beautiful home in fair Devon waiting for his occupation; a seat in parliament all but secured, and yet for the patriotic love of leading that strange medley of reckless adventurers he was living squalidly in the South African veldt, sleeping in the open three nights out of the six with a single blanket thrown over his body; his hands so disfigured by cattle sores, the curse of the veldt, that I never saw them not bandaged up."

Ladyship is called after the wife of Sir Harry Smith, formerly Commanding General in South Africa. She was a Spanish girl, to whom the General gave protection, which he was obliged to furnish in the Peninsula war, and who subsequently married him. Harris Smith is named after her husband.

Acadia-Dalhousie Football Game.

The annual football match between Acadia and Dalhousie universities took place on the campus here on Tuesday afternoon. The day was a pleasant one, but the ground was frozen quite hard and being covered with snow rendered playing by either team very unsatisfactory.

Port Williams Matters.

The schooner Nellie Blanchy has been here from Boston this week, discharging flour and feed for Messrs Hiley & Harvey.

Repairs are about to be made on the bridge. Material is on hand for re-flooring and putting it in first-class condition.

The members of "Lily of the Valley" Division are to give a musical and literary entertainment in their hall this evening, which promises to be a very interesting affair.

The "port" presents a lively appearance these days. A large amount of business is done here—the firms of Hiley & Harvey and Chase, Campbell & Co. being two of the largest in the county.

Miss Cogswell had another stroke of paralysis last week and was in a very precarious condition, but is now recovering.

A Kings County Industry.

Mr. J. W. Smith, manager of the Acadia Canning Co., was in town over Sunday. This company, which comprises Mr. W. H. Chase, of this town, and Mr. Smith, began business at Kingston, this county, on Sept. 13th last, and has been very successful. They employ from fifteen to eighteen hands and make the cans and do all the work on the premises.

The Convent's Thanks.

To the Editor of the Acadian. DEAR SIR.—At the recent W. C. T. U. Convention held in Wolfville the following resolution was passed unanimously, but through some oversight was not sent to be printed when it should have been.

Another Landmark Gone. We are again called upon to record the death of one of our old and respected citizens. We refer to the late George H. Crawford, who, after a short illness passed over to join the great majority, on the evening of the 10th, and we might say that although he was a man of few professions, his conduct and example always told for the right.

Billtown. Mr. Henry A. Woodworth has sold his place to Mr. Wilfred Wheaton. He proposes to move his family to Berwick. Miss Nellie Motion died on the evening of the 13th, after much suffering.

A young son of Ambrose McGinnis, while playing on the school grounds at Etas, Gasperau, on Thursday last week, had his arm dislocated at the elbow. Dr. Margeson was summoned from Hantsport and set the member. It is said that the Dominion parliament will be summoned to meet early in January.
