MACK SENNETT'S

Big New Five-Reel Comedy
Sensation

"DOWN ON THE FARM"

OH BOY! Oh Man!! Oh Lady! Lady!! One glimpse of the simple life and you'll sub-let your swell apartment, sell your mansion, trade in your twelve-cylinder limousine for a threshing machine and get yourself a farm like this—if you can find another just like it. And an all-star Sennett cast to milk the cows and feed the chickens—Oh! Neighbor! This is the life!

IN the ensemble scenes of "Down On The Farm," Mack Sennett's latest five reel comedy sensation, the entire menagerie of feathered and four-footed folk is involved. This employment of his mute stars isn't accomplished merely for "atmosphere" purposes, but to help in the progress of moods with a rapidity to which Sennett admirers are accustomed to apply the description "Sennett-tempo." That's as fast as footage of fun can be run without tripping up the jokes.

A picture you will never forget and you will laugh yourself sick. A doctor in attendance.

Prices 20 and 35c.

Show at 8 p.m.

Wednesday and Thursday,
Aug. 31-Sept. 1st

"RED FOAM"

By William H. Hamby

A RALPH INCE PRODUCTION

Picturized by Edward J. Montagne

A Violin.
Memories.
Romance,—and then swift stirring action to a climax that thrills.

FOR months he had stood by and watched the woman he loved being abused, deceived and insulted by the man who, with treacherous lies, had stolen her from him. . . . But, there is a time when patience ceases to be a virtue, and that moment had arrived. . . .

'The FURNACE'

BY PAN

Like Caesar's Wife---

ANTHONY BOND'S bride must be above reproach. How difficult this was you will understand when you have seen "THE FURNACE." For Folly Bond was beautiful, admired, unconventional, —and not in love with her husband. "THE FURNACE" is one of the most powerful dramas of modern marriage ever shown on the screen.

When a Millionaire Marries an Actress---

THERE is usually one of two results—a divorce within a year, or a life of bitter quarrels, suspicion and disillusion; for the love of money and the love of admiration are poor foundations on which to build even a "modern" marriage.

"THE FURNACE" is the story of such a marriage, and the "furnace" was the hell-fire which the souls of these envied and yet unhappy people were compelled to pass before the dross of convention, jealousy and misunderstanding had been burned away.

No one, married or single, should miss this powerful picture.

The Shoe Situation is a lot more comfortable than it was a year ago.

Some difference from the prices we had to ask last August, when shoes soared so high that we took the bull by the horns and threw out some 100 pairs for less than cost.

To-day thanks to an improved leather market and a policy which bases all prices on current replacement costs we are supplying good all-leather Summer footwear at such moderate prices as
