SOUR BALL EXERCISES

A plain girl looking across at a lovely friend sometimes feels her heart contract with a very material envy. She sees men drawn to the beauty as bees are drawn to honey-flowers.

She notices people turn carelessly away from the small snub-nosed daughter to the little family beauty and say, "Oh! what a darling lamb!" Yet the "darling lamb" is often already sadly spoiled and the poor little snub-nosed sister is a really sweet and unselfish mite. How often do we pass a plain baby, unheeding, and stop to comment on the blue eyes and golden hair of the angel in the pram a little farther on? It is quite true then. Beauty does attract; but let the plain girl cheer herself with this thought—the attraction does not last unless the personality is charming too.

It is an astounding thing how often you find the super-beauty remains unmarried. Look around on the happily married girls you know. How many of them are beautiful? I have known ever so many plain women whose husbands adored them.

I have known beauties who alienated good husbands by vanity, want of sympathy, egoism (men hate a self-centred woman), and above all by a perfect talent for whining and complaining. You may attract a husband or a friend by your face; you can only keep him with your character.

A plain girl has many advantages. She has none of the carking fears that beset the beauty about "losing her looks". She is free from rivalry and petty jealousies. She laughs at wrinkles. To her the first grey hair is a joke, not a tragedy, and she knows that as she grows older she will probably become far more comely.

Beauty, my dear plain girl, is only skin deep; but so is ugliness. You can easily spoil the former, while the latter can be improved out of all knowledge.

To the plain girl, I offer these few words of advice:

Set to work to make people forget you are plain.

Think beauty; for your sub-conscious mind will act upon the thoughts you give it and will gradually transform your looks if you give it nothing but harmony and sympathy and cheerfulness to work with, leaving out envy and malice and jealousy and despair.

Learn to smile. Stand in front of your glass and think of all the things that annoy you; then think of something lovely that has happened to you—for beautiful things often happen to plain girls. Watch the slow sweet smile turning up the corners of your drooping, discontented mouth, and see the light that is coming to your eyes. Encourage that inward grace and sweetness that will show forth speedily and soon lighten up your plainness.

Set to work to transmute your absence of good looks into the presence of Charm. Cultivate a beautiful speaking voice. Take the trouble to please.

INCREASE OF DAIRY EXPORTS

In the seven months this year ending with July, according to the Dairy and Cold Storage Branch News Letter, Canada supplied the United Kingdom with 4,927,266 pounds of butter compared with 154,224 pounds in the same period last year and 40,458,544 pounds of cheese compared with 20,153,504 pounds in 1924. In the twelve months ending with July our total exports of butter were 28,869,307 lbs. valued at $10,317,819, compared with 14,474,241 lbs. worth $5,273,479 in the previous year and 140,149,300 lbs. of cheese $27,894,665 in value compared with 119,235,800 lbs. valued at $23,702,976. This shows an increase in favour of 1924-25 of 14,394,066 lbs. in butter and 20,913,500 lbs. in cheese and a combined increase in money of $9,236,029, by which amount the country has been enriched.

With one terrific split the rolling ship sank slowly down beneath the waves. All the passengers were thrown into the sea and among these were two Jewish gentlemen, who happened to be clinging to the same spar.

After floating about in this way for some time they both felt very exhausted. Toward the end of the second day, however, one of them sighted a ship, and with renewed hope, he cried to his companion:

"Key, I see a sail!"

"What good does that do us?" replied Key.

"We ain't got no samples."
