Will Aroostook Suffer Ruin?

A Parkhurst Farmer Says 5000* Familiss Will Move to New Brunswick if Reciprocity
Becomes Law.

Anti-reciprocity men in New Brunswick are crying out that reciprocity will mean that the farming interests of this province will be at the mercy of Maine and will be ruined. Here is an article contributed to the Bangor Commercial, by a farmer in Parkhurst, Maine:-

A short time ago the citizens of Aroostook, in their comfortable homes, surrounded by plenty, were enjoying life and looked forward to a happy future. Without warning, a clap of thunder broke over their heads and many, many, of our worthy citizens were dazed and stunned. The thunder proved to be President Taft's Reciprocity scheme and Aroostook's enterprising citizens are still dazed and blinded by the dark cloud that hangs over the land. Today the Garden of Maine is filled with gloom. Should this atrocious bill become a law, Aroostook is doomed. Don't try to tell us to cheer up and look pleasant. We have Canada on three sides of us and know all the conditions. Hundreds of Canadians come annually to Aroostook. They burn their bridges behind them by selling their farms and homes for a song and buy land in Aroostook that costs $100 per acre. They are thrifty citizens, soon pay for their farms and become independent. In New Brunswick they barely make a living. Canadian merchants that came here ten years ago have prospered. Some of them could now buy every store on the St. John river between Grand Falls and Woodstock. And still in the two countries that lie side by side, there is the same rich soil under foot, the same blue sky over head and the same breed of people.

Party lines have vanished in Aroostook. There are good Christian people here who would feel like assassinating President Taft and using his body for a fox bait. His policy would give the American farmers eight million people to sell to and the Canadian people ninety millions, 5,000 of the best Aroostook families would move to New Brunswick and in the country at large ten million citizens would make homes under the British flag."

The Question and the Answer.

THE QUESTION—How can it be that the farmer will receive more for his products under reciprocity, while the consumer will, at the same time, pay less for them?

THE ANSWER—In the first place the duties at present collected on products imported, amounting to a very large annual sum, will not be collected and will remain in the consumer's pocket. In the second place, the commission agents and middlemen, the meat packers, the cannery, and all the rest of them, will no longer be able by reason of the American tariff to control and keep down the price at which the farmer must sell to them. At the same time they will no longer be able by reason of the Canadian tariff to control and keep up the price at which the consumer must buy from them. Thus the food monopolists, who have been able to play both ends for the benefit of themselves, will have their exorbitant profits cut down, to the advantage of both classes of their victims.

PROGRESS OF THE CAMPAIGN

Largest Meeting Ever Held in Hartland—Carvell, Copp and Shaw Drew the Crowd.

Triumphant beyond the most optimistic hopes of his supporters was B. F. Carvell's meeting in the Forester's hall on Thursday evening. The hall is the largest in the village and fully 600 people were packed therein.

Frank Hagerman was the chairman, and first introduced B. N. Shaw, a former Conservative, but a life-long free trader, who who spoke briefly but to the point. He was cheered to the echo.

Upon Mr. Carvell's advance to the platform, there was a burst of applause such as no man ever got in Hartland. He spoke of the issue in a most forcible manner.

A. B. Copp, M. P. P., was listened to attentively, frequently applauded, and closed his oration amid shouts of "Go on."

It was the biggest and best yet. This parish is among three hard ones to win, but that night's meeting places success beyond peradventure. The fact of there being such an immense gathering, people driving from miles around, the close attention, the number of serious-minded Conservatives present, and the fact that not more than two or three men left their seats until the very close, stamps this meeting a vote-winner.

There was no interruption and the opposition got all the information they wanted without asking questions, although invited to do so.

At Windsor on Friday night the hall was packed with willing listeners, eager for information which they received from the same source.

The same evening W. P. Jones and F. R. Shaw had a successful meeting at Mount Pleasant, leaving many under deep conviction. Carvell, having arrived from Windsor spoke briefly but with effect.

Saturday evening there was a rally at Hartland, J. E. Porter and G. E. Baxter of Andover and Rev. J. H. Puddington being the speakers.

Horses from Iowa

Last Friday an express carload of ordinary work horses, minus special breed or training, passed through the length of this county, bound from far distant Iowa to Fort Fairfield—a journey of more than 1800 miles. At the Fort they will bring $600 to $1000 a pair. Carleton and Victoria counties could have supplied these horses, but the duty is so high it is cheaper to send nearly 2000 miles for them. On Sept 21 are going to vote to have the duty on horses removed?

Victoria Co. News

On Sept. 1 the Victoria County News celebrated its 12th anniversary. It is a bright paper under its present management and to mark its birthday it was enlarged from four to eight pages. The manager is congratulated for his progress.

Another change made in the paper is that it has dropped its "non-political" sub-heading and enters boldly into the field on behalf of the Conservative party. As a Tory paragrapher Editor Milmore excels. Pity 'tis he has not facts to work with.

Arthur Estabrooks has only the best quality vinegar and spices for pickling purposes.
