LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS

Last week Burpee & Tedlin presented for our enjoyment on Wednesday night "The Girl with the Jazz Heart." The picture was a good one, although the abundance of jazz in her make up got her in a peck of trouble. Most people nowadays would follow the band wagon, if they didn't sternly repress the little bit of jazz along in their make up. On Saturday evening a good crowd enjoyed the very best picture yet presented, "Shyde," a tale of the Northwest, entailing active demonstrations of the Northwest Mounted Police. Added to this five reel feature the management also showed a button-busting comedy "Dynamite" with Lloyd Hamilton as an honest-to-goodness star at pantomime. Wednesday of this week gives us the picture version of the old comedy drama, "Ten Nights in a Bar-room," and on Saturday "Cynthia of the Minute." These should both be good.

Another lingering touch of winter in the air last week, but we could not but expect it. Gentle Annie came too soon, but one comforting thought remains, that though badly bent, she is still here.

The post office deserves more than passing comment, and no one could enter now without registering surprise at the marked change in its appearance. Like a bad boy, it got just what it deserved, a good working over. The walls and ceilings have been most tastefully decorated, and a new harmonizing coat of paint to the finish and furnishings give the whole appearance, quite in keeping with a public building.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Brown received a pleasant visit from Mr. Stark last week - leaving a fine boy.

Miss Thelma Scott spent the week and here with her grand parents.
Roy Huggard of St. John is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Crone.

E. L. Field of St. John visited his brother Dr. B. R. Field last week.
Dr. Brown has begun a series of grading operations in his front yard for purposes of improvement.

C. Dickinson of Avondale spent Sunday in town.

Mr. Mackenzie, Mrs. Jenkins and two daughters of the latter are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Amos Downey.

Edward White of Woodstock spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Alice White.

Miss Laura Wilkinson spent Thursday with friends in Woodstock.

Charles Cahill, who has spent the last few weeks here, left on Monday for home.

D. H. Burt and H. G. White spent Sunday at Mars Hill, Me.

The foregoing items arrived too late for last week's issue, the copy, along with other letters having been delayed two days - Editor.

To the Editor: What's the big idea of the "Centreville Howler," going astray last week? Sent them out on Tuesday A. M. as per usual. They must have been so fresh, they went right through Hartland. Please let them have been a slip-up on the part of the mail clerk, or the paper. It may be all right, but don't let it happen again, eh?

Last Wednesday "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" was played to a crowded house, all going away more than pleased with the program. Mr. Burpee, the proprietor, had been up from Hartland and spent the day moving the projecting machine from the balcony to the ante-room on the main floor. This was a most attractive move, as it not only served to give an additional footage to the projection, thus tending also and pleasing to the picture, but also eliminated the sound of the operating of the machine, making the auditorium silent except for the music. A new dead white screen which was made that day, presents the picture in wonderful clearness and detail, and the management really now has an opportunity to put on pictures as good as shown in any town. On Saturday evening, we were treated to "Cynthia of the Minute." Wednesday of this week gives us "The Invisible Power" and on Saturday night we will be looking for Betty Compson in "For Those We Love."

On Friday, Apr. 21, a delegation from here attended a meeting of interested people in the establishment of Mrs. Eastern Star Chapter at East of Florenceville. About 75 were present and the grand deputy, P. A. Jorgensen of Sonerville, Mass., was well pleased with the hearty accord and interest of those present, and assured them that it was just up to them to name the date for the institution of the new chapter.

Centreville affairs and residents are certainly very staid and settled when May 1 (moving day) can come around, and find only one family picking out new stamping grounds.

Mrs. Angie Gregg has the lumber, etc., on her lot and has begun excavating preparatory to the building of her new house on Florenceville Road.

turned to their home in St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Johnson are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. K. P. MacKenzie.

Mr. Johnson of Plaster Rock visited his sister, Mrs. Harry Grant last week.

Geo. Burpee and Charles Wilkinson were in Woodstock last week on jury duty.

B. E. Cliff was called to Woodstock on Tuesday for service on the Grand Jury.

Miss Annie Mackay has returned home from Mars Hill.

Mrs. Mary Banks of Mars Hill visited Mrs. Rose Clark on Sunday.

Wilmot Weade, having completed his first year at Wolfville, is at home for the holiday, with Mr. and Mrs.
R. Harold.

with Mrs. Harold Wilson went to her home in Carleton this week.

Harry Matherin came from Montreal last week, where he had been in the hospital. He is slowly gaining.

Mrs. Arthur Chamberlain was in Edmundston Thursday and Friday.

Miss Sadie Vaseur visited friends at Peterborough Sunday.

Rev. J. J. Graham was called to Grand River Friday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Ephraim Hyder. A number of years ago Mrs. Hyder lived in this town.

Tom Coray of Carleton was in town last week.

Mrs. C. A. Estey who has been away all winter in Idaho and Chicago, arrived home Monday.

week-end in town at the Minto Hotel.

NOTICE!

On Tuesday, April 18, G. E. Watson lost a pair of bay horses by drowning in the St. John river near Salmon river. They were attached to a sloven wagon of American style by brass mounted harness. The harness was the owner's initials - G. E. W. Any one finding or knowing anything about the finding of the team please communicate with the owner.
