THE STORY

YOU will meet "Pop" Grout, father of a typical American family and head of Grout's department store in a small town. He is a lovable character fond of his wife and children, too busy paying their bills to see that they are growing apart from him and seeking grand manners while he remains a simple home loving man.

His daughter Mab falls in love with one of his clerks, Seth Smith, and the rest of the snobbish family is dead set against the match. All except dear old Pop, who remembers that his society-loving wife once wore gingham. He sighs for those days when they were poorer—and happier.

The demands of his family almost bankrupt Pop Grout. He doesn't get much attention from the children but he plops on loyally, wearily, eager to give them what they desire. His shabby clothes are a contrast to their finery. They criticize his econo-

And then their fine bubble bursts. Pop breaks down under the strain. Their hearts smite them for their injustice to this good man. They keep vigil at his bedside. All the old family affection comes flooding back to their hearts. And Pop, a hero in his fashion, fights back to health and saves his store so that his children may lack nothing. And the clerk Smith proves his mettle and the old folks see another flowering of romance in the family homestead.

TO INVESTIGATE POTATO AND GRAIN MARKET

Efforts of T. W. Caldwell and Pius Michaud Prove Effective in Parliament

The Dominion parliament will appoint a commissioner to investigate the possibilities for marketing potatoes and grain in Cuba and the West Indies and T. W. Caldwell, M. P. for Carleton-Victoria, and Pius Michaud, the energetic member for Madawaska-Restigouche, have been persistent and successful in an effort to insure the interests of the potato growers being looked after, as well as the grain-growers.

The original motion in part is thus: "Therefore be it Resolved:

"That in the opinion of this House, it is desirable that this government should create a commission for the purpose of making enquiry into the grain trade, whose findings might serve as a basis for improvement of present legislation relative thereto or for the creation in the immediate future of some permanent solution of the grain marketing problem."

Mr. Caldwell arose in his place and spoke at some length saying in part:

"While the United States market was open to us our shipping problem was a fairly simple one; we just shipped by the railroad. But since that market has been closed to us by the American emergency tariff, Cuba has been practically the only outlet for any quantity of our potatoes. I urged upon the government last spring, apart from the providing of these facilities at St. John, the importance of giving us a regular service of the Government Merchant Marine between St. John and Cuba. I would make that representation even stronger now, because my worst fears have been realized with regard to transportation from St. John to that island. In order to ship potatoes from St. John to Cuba our shippers must charter a vessel and load it with potatoes. If they do not all the space with potatoes they must pay for it anyway. This puts the export business in potatoes into the hands of a few of the largest shippers of New Brunswick. The smaller shippers are practically shut out because they cannot charter and load a vessel at each trip.

"There is another condition to be contended with in Cuba; and while we have no control over the actual trade in Cuba I believe that regular sailings from St. John would enable us to overcome the difficulty from this end.

"I should like to have an assurance from the Minister of Agriculture (Mr. Motherwell), that when the proposed committee begins its deliberations, or when the commission, if the government decide to appoint one, is constituted, I may have leave to submit this matter for consideration. I thought this an opportune time to bring to the attention of the government the fact that there are other important exports in Canada besides grain, in the handling of which they are great abuses."

Mr. Caldwell was followed by Mr. Michaud, who said:

"Mr. Speaker I do not wish to make any lengthy remarks on this subject, for I do not know very much about the mixing of grain, although I am the son of a farmer. But I would like to ask the hon. member for Qu'Appelle (Mr. Miller) if he would add to his resolution after the word grain and potatoes. I do not believe he will refuse to grant that request. The reason why I ask him to do that is this: our American friends are coming over in New Brunswick for potatoes. It seems that we are growing the best potatoes in Canada, and our difficulty just as it is with the grain growers—is the necessity for an improved system of marketing our potato seed. I would ask my hon. friend therefore, to include these words in his motion."

John Miller, mover of the motion, said:

"I do not think it is necessary for me to spend very much time in closing the debate. There seems to be a unanimity of opinion in regard to the necessity for an investigation. The last speaker asked that the words 'and potatoes' be added to the resolution. Personally I have not a very strong objection to the addition of those words. But it may be suggested that those who are appointed to investigate the grain trade would not investigate the potato trade in that trade, and I was wondering whether they would have the necessary insight into and knowledge of the problems which my hon. friend has in mind. I was wondering whether that matter could not be brought before the special committee. If that, however, is not satisfactory to my hon. friend, and if it is thought by the House that it would be best to have the two subjects investigated by the same commission, I would offer no objection to the addition of the words suggested.

"I am willing to insert the words 'and potatoes' before the word 'trade' and also before the word 'marketing' in the last paragraph."

Motion as amended agreed to.

WHAT ABOUT FATHER?

Does the Head of the Family Have a Fair Chance for Happiness?

Does Father have a fair chance in this striving, thriving democracy of ours?

The praises of Mother have been told in song and story for untold ages—even Son and daughter, in various stages of development, have had their delighted chroniclers, but most writers have overlooked the nominal head of the family. Father has been used merely as a background for wife, son or daughter. And it must be confessed that that is what he is in perhaps the majority of instances in America.

Father is the breadwinner—"a good thing" to be plucked and used in various ways by the members of his family—always striving to make more money to give his wife and children a better home, better clothes, more delicate food, a summer holiday in the mountains or at the sea.

Just because he is the background for his family, he has been neglected by novelists, dramatists and motion picture writers. But now comes in the person of Rupert Hughes, Goldwyn author and director, a celebrant of the virtues of the Father of the average American family. His latest motion picture, "Remembrance" is devoted to chronicling the life and struggles of "Pop" Grout, and his little business in a middling American town.

"Remembrance" is coming to the Neighborhood Theatre for two days, Thursday and Friday, March 8 and 9 and at Centreville March 10. Every father will want to see it; and every wife, mother, son and daughter should see it. Father should round up his entire family and take them to see this super-photoplay. It will give them a new respect for Father and a new understanding and sympathy with the daily problems and perplexities which confront him.

Mr. Hughes has done in "Remembrance" for Father what he did in "The Old Nest" for Mother. The two photoplays will long be linked together in the memories of those who have seen them. Taken together they form an epic of American family life. "Remembrance" has all the homely fascinatingly human details which sets Rupert Hughes's Goldwyn photoplays apart from all others; it has humor and pathos, dramatic action and suspense.

Mr. Hughes directed the production and was given a high-powered cast to work with. Claude Cillingwater, star of "Three Wise Fools," enacts the role of "Pop" Grout so convincingly that he seems the typical American father; Kate Lester, Cullen Landis, Patsy Ruth Miller, Richard Tucker, Dana Todd, Nell Craig, Esther Ralston, Max Davidson, William Carroll, Arthur Trimble, Lucille Richsen and Helen Hayward complete the cast.

BARACAS HAVE DEBATE BETWEEN THEMSELVES

The affirmatives were the winners in a very interesting debate last Tuesday evening, which was held in the vestry of the Baptist church. The affair was held under the auspices of the Baracca class and was largely attended.

The subject, "Resolved: that life in the country is more favorable to human development than life in the city" was fully discussed by the leaders and members of the different teams.

In the absence of the President of the society, Mrs. S. S. Miller acted as chairman. Before the debate was started several musical numbers were rendered, including a solo by Ald. Warren White and a duet.

M. L. Hayward, B. C. L., was leader of the affirmative and was supported by F. A. Aiton, Ralph Robinson, Fred Allen, and Ben. Irving.

Warren White led the negative side and was supported by Harvey Reid, Gage Montgomery, Willie Taylor, Sterling King, Gordon Luskey, Ed Lacey, Raleigh Britton and Walter Nodden.

The judges of the debate were Rev.

E. B. McLatchey, Rev. W. P. Haigh and Edmund Stratton.

The leaders of the different teams presented their arguments in an able manner, showing the advantages and disadvantages of both city and country life.

The judges, after going into the matter fully, decided that the affirmatives were winners by 1 1/2 points.

K. OF P. ENTERTAIN AT MOCK TRIAL

The members of Brighton Lodge, No. 51, Knights of Pythias, celebrated the anniversary of the founding of the order Monday evening by holding a "Mock Trial." A large number of invited guests were present and a most enjoyable time was spent.

The accused, Francis Appleby, was charged with crimes, among them being a charge of "stealing the collection from a Holy Roller Convention held at Hawkeshaw, N. B., amounting to 40 cents and pinching and abusing a member of the convention, also gaining admittance through a forged certificate."

E. W. Laskey acted as judge and Rev. W. P. Haigh was clerk of court. After the court had convened, considerable trouble arose in selecting a jury. A large number were called, but were challenged by both the attorneys for the prosecution and defence. Finally the following were selected: H. N. Boyer, Fred Allen, Vernon Nodden, Peter Violette, H. T. Nixon, Dr. Belyea.

The prisoner was then brought to the docket and the charge read to him and a plea of "not guilty" was put in. After the prosecuting attorney, M. L. Hayward, had announced his case, evidence was brought forth by the crown. W. E. Thornton, G. W. Foster and Weldon Ward gave their testimony and set up a strong case for the crown.

G. W. Montgomery acted as attorney for the defence and tried to set up an alibi for his client, bringing forth witnesses, proving that the prisoner was not in Hawkeshaw on the day in which he was charged with stealing the collection. After the evidence was submitted by both lawyers; they then addressed the jury. Mr. Montgomery presented his case to the jury in an able manner, and his twenty minute address was greatly appreciated by his listeners. M. L. Hayward also spoke, at some length, breaking down the arguments of the defence and both were heartily applauded at the finish of their remarks.

The judge then addressed the jury, after which they retired with the evidence and shortly after, brought in a verdict of "Guilty." The judge then sentenced the accused to 30 minutes solitary confinement in the Pigeon Coop at the Local Jail.

Refreshments were served and during the interval Rev. W. P. Haigh gave a short address, outlining the aim and objects of the Knights and extended a hearty welcome to all invited guests.

AT THE U. S. CHURCH

At the U. S. church on Sunday evening a large congregation was present. The young people of the church had charge of the music and a choir of forty rendered very acceptable music. A solo by Elizabeth Hayward was very beautiful. Miss Hayward has a voice that, for her age, is wonderful. Rev. E. B. McLatchey preached a powerful sermon on "Reveries." Mr. McLatchey who has been with this church since Jan. 1, has made many friends and the church as a whole regret that his stay is about over, as his work, especially with the young people has been very successful.

Subject of his sermon for Feb. 25, will be, "If a man die will he live again?" This will be his last sermon and those who have already heard him on other subjects, realize that this one should be very interesting. The large auditorium was nearly filled last Sunday night. Come and help fill it Sunday evening.

NON FRANK CARVELL'S OPINION

Toronto, Feb. 15—"I think the time has come," said Hon. Frank B. Carvell, Chairman of the Dominion Board of Railway Commissioners, in session here today, "when this board must treat the national railways as a railway company. We can't listen to the claim every time that the government has not got the money. We don't intend to be unreasonable but if it is shown hereafter that the construction of a public work is necessary we will not hesitate to give an order."
