A FORECAST.

We have devoted considerable time of late to a study of the political situation in New Brunswick and as a result we admit without hesitation that the liberals will manage by hook or crook and perhaps by both together to come out ahead. The counties where Mr. Blair's schemes have worked to advantage will all probably go liberal. These counties are Kings, St. John, Queens, York, Westmorland and Kent. It is generally admitted Kings will go liberal. Col. Domville's chances are probably better today than they were four years ago. St. John promises to produce a close contest—but Mr. Blair and his colleague Col. Tucker, will, we believe, be elected. The recent local election in Queens showed which way that county will go in the Dominion elections, while York will no doubt return Mr. Gibson. Westmorland and Kent also promise close contests. If Emmerson manages to get the railway vote he will be elected. In our estimation Westmorland is doubtful. Kent will probably elect LeBlanc by a very narrow margin. We believe Mr. Robinson will be elected in Northumberland and the same may be said of Ganong of Charlotte and Hale of Carleton. Mr. McAlister will probably come out victorious in Restigouche, but his majority will be very small. A close contest is promised in Gloucester with chances slightly in favor of Mr. Blanchard the conservative candidate. Albert will probably return Dr. Lewis the present member, and Costigan goes in by acclamation in Victoria and Madawaska. Then according to our forecast the liberals will secure eight seats and the conservatives five and Westmorland is left doubtful.

POLITICAL PECULIARITIES.

The most surprising thing about the political situation in Canada today is the number of liberals and of conservatives who have crossed over to join with former foes, and the many intelligent men who decline to say where they stand or flatly declare that they won't vote at all. It reflects the fact that a very considerable proportion of Canadian people are dissatisfied with both parties, as they are constituted today. The liberal party at the present time is not the party of MacKenzie and Blake. The Conservative party is not wholly the party of MacDonald and Tilley. There are many idiosyncrasies in both parties and they afford material for considerable abusive language. But as the New York Herald remarks contests between parties today are after all very much like disputes between man and wife. Many of the sharp personalities that are uttered are not really meant, and after the atmosphere has cleared up both parties are anxious to promote the interests of the common household and are a unit when threatened with any attack from without.

In his nomination speech, Mr. Robinson said that he would always take a great interest in the fisheries. When any difficulty arose relating to regulations, he would advocate that a commission be appointed from prominent fishermen to inquire into the obnoxious regulation. Their recommendation would be brought before the government and he would urge its acceptance and the abolition of the obnoxious regulation.

Mr. Robinson disclaims being a public speaker. But his speech on Nomination day was just what the audience around the band stand wanted to hear. It was full of facts and rendered in a manner that would do credit to an old time spell binder.

Northumberland County people who favor the taking over of the Canada Eastern Railway by the government will vote for James Robinson.

The Hamilton Herald asks: Why is a geological museum required at Ottawa? If a collection of fossils is desired, what is the matter with the Senate?

The celebration in honor of our returned soldiers was one of the best managed and most satisfactory public functions ever witnessed in Newcastle.

"The Independence of Canada" is the platform upon which Alex. LaForge has been nominated at Windsor for North Essex.

There are 76,196,220 persons in the United States according to the census taken in June and announced last week.

"No men Wanted," is the sign displayed on the G. T. R. office at Toronto Junction. Yes, these are growing times.

Three young men of this town depart for the United States to seek employment. And this is the growing time in Canada.

Whatever the people need can be had if they will vote for principle instead of party.

Pity and Beauty

The most beautiful thing in the world is the baby, all dimples and joy. The most pitiful thing is that same baby, thin and in pain. And the mother does not know that a little fat makes all the difference.

Dimples and joy have gone, and left hollows and fear; the fat, that was comfort and color and curve—all but pity and love—is gone.

The little one gets no fat from her food. There is something wrong; it is either her food or food-mill. She has had no fat for weeks; is living on what she had stored in that plump little body of hers; and that is gone. She is starving for fat; it is death, be quick!

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is the fat she can take; it will save her.

Small Talk BY Big Editors.

THE CANTEN.

(Syracuse Post Standard.)
The President's position of tolerance as toward the "army canteen" is impregnable.

NEGRO LOYALTY.

(Dallas Texas Express.)
The loyalty of the Negro to the republican party is something wonderful, when one stops to consider the wavering tendencies of all other elements of our population.

THE RETURNED SOLDIERS.

The St. John Globe has this to say about the returned Soldiers:—No public demonstration can fully express the affectionate regard which is felt for them nor adequately interpret the appreciation of the people of their services for Queen and Empire.

TOUGH ON STOCKTON.

(Fredericton Herald.)
At the St. John nomination Wednesday Dr. Stockton was proceeding to sneer at Col. Tucker, when he was interrupted with the very appropriate suggestion that "Tucker was no turncoat anyway." That was tough on the Dr.

THE KIND OF CAMPAIGN.

(Cincinnati Enquirer.)
This is a thinking campaign. Processions and fireworks, and flags and brass bands are well enough in their way, as a rule, but they will not count for much in 1900. They are entertainment for the people, though.

WORKING FOR THE FEW.

(Philadelphia Record.)
"The last week of a singular uneventful political canvas finds the campaign managers on both sides working like beavers to influence that comparatively small number of persons in the voting population who are open to last card arguments and desirous of standing with the winning party."

POLITICAL PROPHETS.

(Victoria B. C. Colonist)
The political prophets are getting in their work. What use is there in it? A man may think that his party will carry the country, but what is the use in saying that he knows it? Never mind what the prophets say. Vote according to your convictions. The Times last night had it figured out that the government will have a comfortable majority. But neither the Times nor any one else knows anything about it.

TEACHERS AND POLITICS.

(Victoria Colonist.)
The teachers of Vancouver do not like an order made by the school board that they are not to take part in politics. We are inclined to sympathize with the teachers and very greatly doubt the right of the school board to make any such order. Once we admit that a teacher is entitled to vote, he has the logical right to endeavour to convince others how they should vote. The reason given that politics will interfere with the discharge of their duties, seems very far-fetched.

CARD.

To the Electors of the County of Northumberland,

GENTLEMEN:

I have accepted the nomination unanimously tendered me by the Liberal party of Northumberland in convention assembled, as the GOVERNMENT CANDIDATE for the House of Commons in the coming election. I therefore earnestly solicit your votes and assistance. If elected I will give my best attention to your interests, the interests of New Brunswick, and those of United Canada. I am,

Fathfully yours
