

The Union Advocate.

Established 1867.
NEWCASTLE, MIRAMICHI, N. B.
WEDNESDAY, MAY 13, 1891.

The Senate.

The appointment of Jabez Bunting Snowball, of Chatham, a life long opponent of the government of Sir John A. Macdonald has been gazetted.

The appointment ought to have added to it the words "by purchase" to make it clear that the appointment is made by a liberal government, but when Sir John goes back on his long record and appoints a bitter opponent in place of selecting one of the many faithful party men who had in the past done good service, it is not to be wondered at that Liberal Conservatives are very much dissatisfied and are heard to exclaim that renegade Grits can get offices denied to faithful workers. Political houses seem to be an unknown factor in Northumberland politics, judging from recent occurrences in this county. First we have Mr. Bunting the leader of the provincial government, with what looked like sure defeat looming up before him when the House of Assembly met, buying up its four representatives to support a government they were elected to oppose, for the purpose of still retaining power, and then we have a representative and the dominion government putting their heads together and buying up a prominent Liberal to their side by the bribe of a most honorable position.

Surely the dominion government is not situated as the local government was and hence finds it necessary to buy opponents to come over and help them. If the highest positions in the country are to be bought and sold in this way then it would be advisable that a certain sum be placed upon such offices and the revenues of the country benefited by sale thereof. We venture the assertion that had Mr. Snowball been appointed prior to the late election that in spite of his influence the Third Party would still have remained a member of the house of commons and our present representative left at home for another term.

Mr. Snowball had his price and the government must have considered it was a good bargain and closed with him.

As a late exchange very truly says at the close of an article in reference to the appointment—

"However well qualified Mr. Snowball may be as a man and business representative he is not of the great interests of the North, a few more such appointments over the heads of Sir John's party, would tend to disorganize it altogether. People will have no confidence in a leader if they find him ready to surrender or sell out to the enemy."

The appointment is a direct insult to the Liberal Conservative party of the Northern counties in that it looks as if the government considered there was no party men in the ranks worthy of the appointment. Latest reports state that Mr. Snowball has come to Ottawa to be sworn in and arranged to be sworn in to the patronage of the country, and it is well for Liberal Conservatives to think over what will happen many years when our new Senator gets the patronage of the county in his own hands. Time will probably reveal more than will be in their interest. It now looks as if our aspiring representative had to play second fiddle to Mr. Snowball, and will not dare to kick or he may find that gentleman nominating and supporting another candidate when the time arrives, and we do not see how he can expect anything else. He will get no sympathy if such should occur.

A Gas Bag.

If somebody does not puncture the gas bag in charge of the Advocate it will burst, now that its master has been hounded far above his deserts, and what a loss that would be to the dominion government party, and innumerable others, whom it is looking up to with delight to its transcendent abilities.

Poor thing; its vicious remarks ever since it was brought here by its master to do his dirty work, the work of writing down and endeavoring to injure and all who did not agree with him in all his pursuits is so well known that people only smile and despise the thing who can thus be led by the nose to do such dirty work. Knowing all these things so well we can afford to laugh at the continuation of its imbecile attempts to injure, which attempts have been continued without intermission, privately and publicly since its master bought the fit out of the period for the Advocate and set his servile creature to work to further his interests and those of the Liberal party. The Liberal party are to-day congratulating themselves that they are rid for a time at least of this creature of whom they have been for a long time heartily ashamed, and wish the government party joy of their recent acquisition through its master.

Just now the gas bag is at loss whom to attack, those whom it formerly abused, men of influence, the ladies of W. C. T. U., prominent clergymen, and others just now must be let alone, but the Advocate—oh yes, that will do, it can make its columns interesting by going for the shirt-torn paper and hence the manner in which were attacked in its last issue. We have stood it for about seventeen years and shall no doubt be able to stand it in the future. It amuses the gas-bag and does not hurt us, and perhaps keeps it out of further mischief.

And what has it succeeded in effecting so far as we are concerned. We have been recommended to offices within the gift of the government, and the recommendation endorsed by public men of both parties; how has it been with the gas-bag editor of the Advocate, when his master recommended him to a convention held in Chatham to select a government ticket at the general election for the local assembly but one other person could be found to vote for such a character, the majority affirming that it was more gas than the ticket could carry, and he was supposed to suddenly that he was not heard of for some time. And this is the creature who for years has been abusing his master and himself. "You pay your money and take your choice," but there is no choice in its case, you have to take it and all, and neither shaving its head, a bath, or even a vigorous scrapper will ever return it to a state of cleanliness.

Bathurst Jottings.

May 8th, 1891.
FUNERAL.—Mr. Chisholm, who died here on Sunday morning, the 3rd inst., was buried on Tuesday morning, May 5th, at the hour of 9 a. m. Long before the hour the funeral was announced to take place, crowds might have been seen standing on the sidewalk and in front of the house where rested the remains of the deceased gentleman; every second very sad, but what unexpressed sadness must have been in the hearts of his dear wife and family. The funeral service was performed by the Rev. Father Barry in the R. C. Church, the service I am told was very impressive indeed, and was performed with great solemnity. Great sympathy is felt for his sorrowing wife and family. A very handsome casket contained the remains, the cover being covered with choice flowers.

PUSANAS.—The honorable Mr. and Mrs. Ryan left here on Wednesday last for Fredericton, where they intend spending a ten days visit with some of their friends. I am sure that the rest is much pleased by this gentleman after his arduous labors which he has just finished in the lower house of Parliament.

Mr. James McGinley left here Tuesday morning last on the accommodation for Philadelphia, and was accompanied by one of his sisters as far as Newcastle. His many friends wish him every success.

Dr. Bishop is taking up his residence (pro tem) at the Rectory of St. Georges Church; the house is a very nice locality and I have no doubt but that it will make a nice summer residence for Dr. Bishop and his family.

Mr. Henry White has returned home from his visit to Europe looking remarkably well. He seems to be well pleased with the large cities which he visited in England. This gentleman seems bewildered to know why so many people, formerly residents of the old country should have left there, but this gentleman seems to forget the fact that the living in this country of ours for the laboring class is far superior to that of the old country. We are very well pleased to have Mr. White in our midst again as he is a great favorite amongst us.

The Rev. G. J. D. Peters has left here for Lewisville, to take charge of his new parish; quite a number of the Rev. gentleman's friends witnessed his departure from the depot.

Percy Wilbur has purchased the residence of Dr. Bishop for the sum of $8000. Mr. Wilbur is about to make some alterations and in a very short time we expect to see this house opened as a hotel. The site of Dr. Bishop's house for such a purpose is a very fine one and it is to be hoped that Mr. Wilbur will do a flourishing business this summer.

Mr. Albert Hinton has opened a new livery stable and has undoubtedly got some of the best livery horses in the county. As Mr. Hinton is a great lover of horses and has recently paid a large price for some of them we feel confident of his success.

Mr. John Ellis' establishment is being newly painted over, and when finished it will present a very gay appearance.

Mr. Harrington, Barrister at Law, has moved from the lower end of the town.

Mr. Gaylin is spending a few days in town, but owing to the pressure of his business in the lower end of the county his stay will be limited.

ASCENSION DAY.—Thurs last being Ascension Day services were held in the R. C. Church. Owing to Mr. Peters' departure there were no services held in the church of England as in former years. I hope shortly to be able to report the coming of another Rector to fill the vacant gap.

May 10th, 1891.
A RUNAWAY HORSE.—The fine colt owned by K. F. Burns, Esq., M. P., ran away to-day (Saturday) and went at a furious pace around town, but I am happy to say that neither horse, wagon or any lives or property were injured, some excitement was caused by the occurrence.

I was pleased to see K. F. Burns, M. P., in town to-day, wearing a red tie which I am informed is the present tie of this gentleman. This gentleman is looking 15 years younger than on Monday for Ottawa.

A. J. W. McKenzie returned from London this morning, bringing with him a car load of potatoes which he intends to dispose of in St. John. I may say that during the last seven months he has bought on the Caraquez line over 12,000 bushels of potatoes; he reports that this famous vegetable is almost all bought up now as far as Pocomoke.

In conversation which I had with Mr. McKenzie he informed me that it was a pleasure to him to do business on the Caraquez road, the Conductor, Mr. Albert Melvin, and all hands in connection with the train being very obliging and accommodating, and also Mr. Blanchard, the very popular and efficient station master at Grand Anse, who is like obliging to rich and poor.

Mr. McKenzie has also been appointed to the office of Parish Court Commissioner, a position which he is well calculated to fill, and has also been offered the position of High Sheriff of the County of Gloucester. If a change was made no better man could be found in the County. Mr. McKenzie also spoke to me about Mr. Charles H. Hachey, the popular station agent at Caraquez, who seems to have the happy method of pleasing everyone, following in the footsteps of the old-fashioned station agent.

The Agricultural Society located at Grand Anse, has received to-day a carload, 20,000 lbs of assorted seeds, which will be very much appreciated by the farmers in that locality. Mr. McKenzie left here for St. John.

Mr. Edward MacDonald, who has recently been appointed local agent for a convention held in Chatham to select a government ticket at the general election for the local assembly but one other person could be found to vote for such a character, the majority affirming that it was more gas than the ticket could carry, and he was supposed to suddenly that he was not heard of for some time. And this is the creature who for years has been abusing his master and himself. "You pay your money and take your choice," but there is no choice in its case, you have to take it and all, and neither shaving its head, a bath, or even a vigorous scrapper will ever return it to a state of cleanliness.

May 11th, 1891.
FIRE.—A small fire broke out in house of Dr. Bishop on Sunday morning but there was no serious damage done.

A STRANGE CASE.—Mr. T. DesBrisay was in Church on Sunday evening, last, was buried on Tuesday morning, May 5th, at the hour of 9 a. m. Long before the hour the funeral was announced to take place, crowds might have been seen standing on the sidewalk and in front of the house where rested the remains of the deceased gentleman; every second very sad, but what unexpressed sadness must have been in the hearts of his dear wife and family. Presentations.
Mr. and Mrs. Simon McLeod were presented with most complimentary addresses upon leaving Woodstock to take up their residence in Newcastle. Their departure was much regretted. Mrs. McLeod was President of the Woodstock W. C. T. U., and in addition to the address was presented with a hand some silver tea service.

McLeod had acted as the Deputy of Campbell Division, some of Temperance ever since its organization and the address stated "had won the confidence and esteem of not only the members of the division, but of the community in general."

An Honorable Course.
A few days ago the proposition was made in the Ontario Legislature to increase the salary of the premier and to allow the leader of the opposition a salary of $2000. There is no doubt that the proposition in that Assembly has been well worthy of public recognition, and the proposal is said to have met with general approval.

But Mr. Meredith, the leader of the opposition had something to say in the matter, and while thanking the house for the proposition made by the leader on the opposition side, most emphatically declined to take the amount giving good reasons for his refusal.

How few of our public men would act as Mr. Meredith has done, most of them seem to be imbued with the idea and practically endeavor to carry it out that it is a game of grab and the more they can get the better for themselves.

Slight mention has been made at this session of the Dominion Parliament of asking that the indemnity of the members be increased to $2,000 and how many of them would act as Mr. Meredith did in declining it. The fingers of one hand would in all probability be sufficient to count them on.

The Weather.
Heavy rain fell early on Monday morning till about daylight, the rest of the forenoon it rained slightly. The rain will start vegetation but unless it rained much longer and heavier at the heads of the streams it will not help the stream drivers much.—Yesterday was bright and warm.

Personal.

Dr. W. P. Bishop, of Bathurst, was in town on Saturday last.

Mr. A. W. Hayden, representing the Canada Paper Company was in town on Friday evening last. He left for Chatham on Saturday morning, returning from thence to Montreal.

Dr. Smith, the medical superintendent of the Tracadie lazaretto, left for British Columbia last week. It is supposed for the purpose of investigating the cases of leprosy said to exist there.

It is reported that Commodore J. L. Stewart, of the Chatham "World," is to be married this summer to an heiress. The wedding will be a swell affair if the Commodore has his own way about it.—Fredericton Herald.

FREDERICTON, May 8.—C. H. Lablache, M. P. P., was sworn in this morning as a member of the provincial executive.

E. Clifford Fish of Newcastle, successfully passed the pharmaceutical examination before the state board of Massachusetts at Boston recently. Only fifteen passed out of fifty who applied. We congratulate Clifford on his so successfully passing his examination.

The late Patrick Furell, ex-M. P., for Glengarry, who was born at Glengarry on the 8th of May, 1818. That Sir Leonard may live to see many more birthdays in the enjoyment of good health, and continue to hold the position of Lieutenant Governor of New Brunswick is the wish of many who admire the course pursued by Sir Leonard during a long public life.

At the recent meeting of the California Medical Society, held at Sacramento on the 22nd April, we notice that Dr. W. J. G. Dawson, formerly of Newcastle, was elected one of the vice-presidents of the Society.

Mr. Joseph Lambert, formerly held clerk at the Barker House, has accepted a position as traveller with the house of O. Mignier, book and shoe manufacturer, Quebec.—Fredericton Herald.

His honor, Judge Fraser, is now in Baltimore, and is expected to return to Fredericton about the first of June, in time for Trinity term.

Mr. McHugh, of Moncton, with her young daughter, and Mrs. Sharp, of Bathurst, and daughter, have been visiting their friends, Mr. James McNichol, David F. Merritt, (President), James E. Masters, Daniel Jordan, Edwin S. Wetmore, (Secretary), H. A. White, G. M. Jarvis, Henry Duffell, T. Amos Goodson, T. Nisbet Robertson, Watson Allen, W. H. B. Sadler, Charles Masters, Henry J. Petitions for Prohibition.

A large number of petitions have already been presented to parliament for the prohibition of the liquor traffic. These are the petitions in circulation a short time ago among the congregations of the various churches throughout the dominion, and recite that the general traffic in intoxicating liquors is a recognized evil, producing a large proportion of the poverty, suffering, disorder and crime in our Dominion, and that the petitioners believe that a Dominion law prohibiting the importation, manufacture and sale of alcoholic liquors for all beverage purposes and containing ample provisions for its strict enforcement by the proper authorities, will greatly diminish these and other evils, and largely increase the prosperity, and promote the health, peace and morals of our country. The petitioners therefore, pray that such a law be enacted forthwith.

An exchange thus discourses on the improbability of such a law being passed— "But there is little probability that a prohibitory law such as the petitioners are now asking for will be passed by the present parliament. The Scotch act could not have been passed when it was not as a government measure, and there are a number of members of the present cabinet who are opposed to prohibition in any form. Among these are such representatives of the brewing and distilling interests as Mr. Hon. John Joseph and Hon. Frank Smith. The present government will not, perhaps, take the responsibility of repealing the Scotch act, but they are little likely to take a further step in the opposite direction. And in view of the revenue question involved private members are powerless. A recent almost equal to that obtained from the United States is derived from the excise and customs duties on liquors. This fact, together with the large control of the brewing, distilling and other interests, make it morally certain that the Macdonald government will not introduce prohibition bill. But the temperance sentiment of the country is so strong, that the party in power will not doubt make large professions in favor of the cause. They will hardly go further than that."

David Robinson Killed.

A SHOCKING RUNAWAY ACCIDENT YESTERDAY AFTERNOON ENDS THE LIFE OF A WELL-KNOWN CITIZEN.

A well-known citizen has been cut down in the prime of a useful career, and that too by an accident so sudden and terrible that it proved a shock to the whole community. For years David Robinson has been engaged in teaching, and has been a most successful teacher, and has family records back to the year 1733. John Clark, brother of Dr. W. J. G. Dawson, was born in Bristol, England, in 1755.—Review.

A Respected Citizen Gone.

Mr. George Whitaker, an old and respected inhabitant of Chatham for many years died on Wednesday last after a lengthy illness. Mr. Whitaker was in his 78th year. He was a trustee of St. Luke's Methodist congregation of Chatham, and many years ago occasionally occupied the pulpit of the old Methodist church when the resident minister was engaged elsewhere. He was universally respected.

Mr. W. C. Whitaker, assistant Post Office Inspector, St. John, and Mr. Edward Whitaker are some of the deceased; two of his daughters, Mrs. W. H. Howard and Mrs. Nichol reside in Chatham. His remains were followed to the grave by many sympathizing friends.

Some fancy the charms of the lily-white mail, Of ethereal form and glowing eye, Who floats in the sunshine, and droops in the shade, And is always "just ready to die."

But give me the girl of sunny face, The blood in whose veins courses health and grace, With the vigor of youth in her movements of grace, Oh that is the maiden for me.

She is the maiden the "lot for life" The sickly, complaining woman may be an object of love and pity, but she cannot be the object of respect. She is down by female weakness and disorder, subject to hysteria and a martyr to near-sightedness. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a sure cure for these distressing complaints, and will transform the feeble drooping sufferer into a healthy happy blooming woman. Guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case or money paid will be refunded.

W. C. T. U.'s Amalgamate.
York and Northumberland counties having united under Mrs. Judge Stoddard, of Fredericton, as county superintendent, the first annual convention will be held at Chatham on May 22nd. Each union in these two counties has been asked to send three delegates, and a few invitations have been extended to outside unions.

There will be two sessions open to the public except part one and in the evening there will be a public meeting.

Supreme Court.
At Fredericton on the 9th inst., among other judgments delivered is the following:—

The Chief Justice announced Judge Fraser's judgment in Chisholm vs. Burns, overruling the plea with costs decreeing partnership and directing accounts to be taken.

Alarm of Fire.
About five o'clock on Saturday afternoon an alarm of fire was rung. The fire was on the roof of the old warehouse owned by Hon. Peter Mitchell, and was no doubt caused by sparks from the mill chimney, the wind driving them in that direction. A stream of water from the steam fire engine doused it out in a few minutes.
