The latest estimates by German tists of the total population of our earth are, in round numbers, as follows:— AYER'S PILLS. Australia 9,000,000 sq. kil. 4,000,000 A large proportion of the diseases which 315.000.000

cause human suffering result from derange-ment of the stomach, bowels, and liver. AYER'S CATHABTIC PILLS act directly upon Africa...30,000,000 America. 43,000,000 89.000.000 * Asia....44,500,000 " 830,000,000 4 hese organs, and are especially designed to ure the diseases caused by their derange-Europe is the most densely populated of the continents; Asia contains more than one-half of the inhabitants of the nt, including Constipation, Indiges-n, Dyspepsia, Headache, Dysentery, a host of other ailments, for all of globe. As long as there is evidently room which they are a safe, sure, prompt, and pleasant remedy. The extensive use of these for untold millions of people, there need be no fear of over-population. According to their religious creeds, the above 1,443,000,000 may be classified thus: 212,000,000 Catholics, 124,000,000 Protestants, 84,000,000 Schismatics, 7,000,000 Israelch they are held by the medical profesbstances only, and are absolutely free from lomel or any other injurious ingredient. ites, 200,000 Mahometans, 163,000,000 Brahmins, 424,000,000 Buddhists and 230,000,000 Pagans. The number of Chris tians aggregate, therefore, 420,000,000, the worshippers of One God are less than one-half of the inhabitants of the earth, AYER'S PILLS are invaluable to me, and "AYER'S PILLS are invaluable to me, and are my constant companion. I have been a severe sufferer from Headache, and your PILLS are the only thing I could look to for relief. One dose will quickly move my bowels and free my head from pain. They are the most effective and the easiest physic I have ever found. It is a pleasure to me to speak in their praise, and I always do so when occasion offers.

A Sufferer from Headache writes:

W. L. Page, of W. L. Page & Bro." Franklin St., Richmond, Va., June 3, 1882.

'I have used AVER'S PILLS in number on hand at our home, and prize them as a pleasant, safe, and reliable family medicine. FOR DYSPEPSIA they are invaluable. J. T. HAYES."

The REV. FRANCIS B. HARLOWE, writing from Allanta, Ga., savs: "For some years past I have been subject to constipation, from which, in spite of the use of medicines of various kinds, I suffered increasing inconvenience, until some months ago I began taking AYER'S PILLS. They have entirely corrected the costive habit, and have vastly improved my general health."

orshippers more than all the other Christian denominations combined. Forces which none can at present under stand are beginning to operate in favor of the poverty-stricken people of the west coast of Ireland. Two hundred years ago one of the chief industries there was the capturing and curing of the pilchard, species of herring which visited the coast at a certain season every year in enormous shoals. Without apparent reason the fish left the Irish coast and re-appeared off Cornwall. The more enterprising of the Irish fishermen followed their prey to the new waters, and they and their descendants, together with the English among whom they settled and their descendants have ever since made the catching of the pilchard their chief means of livelihood. Now, however, that the fish are returning to their old grounds off the Irish coast the tide of migration is turned in the same direction, and Cornishmen are going to Ireland to continue their old lustry. The work naturally engages

It gives another singular illustration of the good fortune that has often attended the families of Irish exiles. The story is as follows:—When William E. Gladstone was a young man and a student one was a young man and a student diadstone was a young man and a student at Oxford two impecunious families in Ireland took passage at nearly the same time in emigrant ships to seek fortunes in the new world that were rendered impossible to them by misrule in their native land. More than fifty years have passited, and to-day, while Mr Gladstone is and, two sons of the Irish emigrant fam ies referred, to Chester A. Arthur and Philip H.
