There has been less threatening pointers flews, and the sharp rise in consols was partially due to that stretumstance. Gas property has improved. Perhaps the brightest spot in the weekly record is the rapid recovery in bank shares, a movement which is partly reflected in the provinces, and certainly the dividend announcement have, in most instances, given satisfaction. Nearly all united States shares and bonds are higher, the resumption of species payments, and a satisfactory report of the Eric railway being the chief reasons for the improvements. The Beonomist quotes bank bills, sixty days to three months, at 4½ to 5 per cent discount, and three months trade bills at 4½ to 5 per cent.

LONDON GROCERY MARKETS.

A chile despatch to the New York press dated London, Jan. 4th, reviews the condition of the above markets during last week as follows:—In Mincing Lane more inquiry prevails for coffee at the recent decline in prices; common kinds, which suffered the greatest fall, are firmer. The sugar market does not show a favourable change; French refined sold at a further decline. At to-day's public sales, crystallized Demarara went off at 6d to 1s per cwt. decline. The yield of beet will probably be equal to that of the season of 1817-8. Several cargoes of rice sold at moderate rates. Black and white pepper have been in partial demand at the recent low quotations. Saltpetre was dull.

Good Enough for Her.—A lady of fashion, with a pug-dog and a husband, entered the train at l'addington the other day. There were in the carriage but two persons, a well-known professor and his wife; yet the lady of fashion coveted, not indeed his chair, but his seat. "I wish to sit by the window, sir," she said imperiously, and he had to move accordingly. "No, sir, that won't do," she said, as he meekly took the next place. "I can't havo a stranger sitting close to me. My husband must sit where you are." Again the professor moved; but his wife fired up and protested. "That lady is too exacting," she said aloud, "you should not have humored her." "What does it matter, my dear," he replied, "for such a very little way? She must be getting out at the next station." Now, the next station was Hanwell, Lunatic Asylum place.—Gentleman's Magazine.

A Compound of Coocenut Oil, For Promoting the Growth and Preserving the Beauty of the Hair.

It softens the hair when harsh and dry. It soothes the irritated scalp. It affords the richest lustre. It prevents the hair from falling off. It promotes its healthy, vigorous growth. It is not greasy nor sticky. It leaves no disagreeable odor. It kills dandruff.

PHILADELPHIA, May 28, 1877.

Gentlemen,—Having used your Cocoaine for the past ten or twelve years, I take pleasure in giving as my opinion that no preparation made in this country will keep the hair so soft and glossy, and, at the same time, allay all irritation of the scalp. It will most effectually re-move dandruff, and prevent the hair from falling out. THOMAS ROBERTS, Wholesale Grocer, 30 South Front Street.

The Ameer will receive sympathetic hospitality, but the ide of mediation is an illusion, upon the cleaning up of which will probably depend the cantinuation of his journey."

London, Jan. 13.—A Calcutta despatcays:—The troops of the Peshawuro an Krurum columns are now settled in quaters for the next two months. Major Cavagnari has received friendly letters fromost of the Cabul and Ghilzar chiefs. A imposing durbar was held at Jellalabad the list of January by General Brown which the most influential men of the neighbourhood attended. Major Cavagna explained the Viceroy's proclamation. I commented on the fact of events manifeing the strength of the British Governme and the failure of the Ameer's resistant and repeated the assurance that we had no quarrel with the people of Afghanists.
