READ IN THE CHURCHES OF THIS DIOCESE ON SUNDAY LAST.

JAMES CHARLES, by the Grac of God and favor of the Apostolic See, Bishop of Charlottetown. To the Clergy and Laity of the Diocese of Charlottetown, Health and Benediction in the Lord. DEARLY BELOVED,-Among the many advantages arising from the different seasons into which the the least beneficial is, that they serve as monitors of the brevity of time, reminding us that we are hastily passing through that portion of time alloted to us by our Almighty Creator, and approaching more closely to that supreme and awful moment when our immortal souls shall be summoned forth from their earthly habita-tions. We are now about to enter upon one of the most important seasons, in which are commemorated the principal events connected with the public life of our Divine Saviour, and which in consequence demands of us more than ordinary attention as Christians and Catholics. Our Holy Mother the Church in her inspired wis-dom, has set aside this holy season of Lent as a time of universa penance and self mortification, and specially inculcates the practice of these virtues by all the faithful during this holy time. Experience has frequently proved what Divine Revelation teaches regarding the manifold agencies and pernicious devices employed for our spiritual ruin by the invisible enemies of our eternal salvation, and the Holy Church at all times, and particularly at this season, exhorts Holy Church, and in response to our episcopal obligations, we would also utter a word of exhortation to all the faithful of this we can expect them to be acceptable to our Heavenly Father. "Be be your ruin," (Ezech. xviii.) "If we do not penance, we shall fall into the hands of the Lord, and into the hands of men." (Ezeclus.

For, says the inspired writer, "the fear of the Lord is the religiousness of knowledge. Religiousness shall keep and justify the heart: it shall give joy and gladness. In the treasures of wisdom is understanding, and religiousness of knowledge; but to sinners wisdom is an abomination," (Ecclus. i.)
