Folly Of Indecision

In a recent interview a man of nation-wide prominence said that he attributed his success in life largely to the fact that he seldom hesitated in making a decision.

"The man or woman who intends to make a success in life may trust himself, his associates and those conditions which we call circumstances," he explained.

"I have found it an almost invariable rule that a decisive attitude towards whatever has to be met will bring more satisfactory results than an attitude of hesitation. This is so even when we make mistakes, for the simple reason that more frequently than not through these mistakes we reach out to larger opportunities.

The man or woman who is constantly weighing each thing that comes up in a carefully adjusted balance, who is constantly evading responsibility, who side-steps big issues, has fear of catastrophe, is very much more likely to meet with that very catastrophe than the man who goes boldly ahead meeting what comes his way without fear.

Fear is the cause of more disasters than may be attributed to any other mental or physical state. It is courage that carries us over every hurdle, the determination to go forward, the refusal to step backward, insistence to hold the vantage ground.

The man who makes his decision quickly, who goes forward in the face of defeat, is sure to make some failure. But there can be no progress without movement, and in the end he is certain to achieve more than the man or woman who is constantly surrendering to conditions.

It is a fact that all who have any success in life constantly stress that decisive action is of paramount importance. This is the day of positive forces, the negations are being relegated to the past and affirmations are acknowledged as the foundation of success in the commercial world, as well as in the psychic sphere.

The man or woman who ventures much may fail often, but he will achieve in proportion to those very failures, because he will use each one as a stepping stone to higher effort.

But the man or woman who quibbles, reconsiders, hesitates and weighs every gain against a greater loss is a predestined failure, because his every attitude should be avoided.

Mothers-in-Law

A touching story of a mother-in-law's love, devotion and sacrifice is related by a writer in the Providence Visitor.

A young man capable in his profession had had financial reverses, he relates. Then follows illness to himself, depriving him of the use of his faculties, with a heavier cross to weigh him down when his young wife becomes a confirmed invalid. The mother of the young wife becomes a devoted slave to both.

The countenance of that mother is still vividly before me with all its beauty and saintliness. She was a woman of marked refinement, one of those angels whom God sent down from heaven to minister unto men. She had worked laboriously or in the field of life before—her life had been one wholly of domesticity. But this winter of want, the inability of her son-in-law to earn a livelihood spurred her on. She sought

Constipation Headaches.

When your liver gets sluggish and inactive, your whole health suffers. Your bowels become constipated, head aches, tongue coated, breath bad, spots float before your eyes, you are bilious, have heartburn, water brash, jaundice, etc.

Use Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills to make the liver resume its proper functions by removing the bile that is circulating in the blood and poisoning the system.

Mr. La Roy Allen, Springfield, N.S., writes: "I desire to express my thanks for the relief Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills have given me. I had been suffering from constipation for three years, and also had had headaches. I tried all sorts of remedies, but got no relief, until my grandfather told me about your pills. I tried them and soon got relief, and now it would not be without them in my home."

Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills are small and do not grip, weaken or irritate like the drastic purgatives of the past. Price 25c a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Value Of Meditation

Measured by ordinary rules the Venerable Cure of Ars should have been accounted one of the least effective of preachers. He was not a man of brilliant parts. He had made a poor course of studies, not for lack of diligence but for a notable lack of capacity. He had not a commanding presence nor a rich voice. He was timid and retiring to a fault. Yet the Cure of Ars was one of the most effective of preachers, for he produced results. When he was asked the source of his wonderful sermons—wonderful only in his own mouth, for no one else can get much out of them—he pointed to the prie dieu where, on his knees, he made his long meditations.

It is quite the thing to refer to people who are worth knowing, and most to be relied upon, as the "thinking people." We take such people for granted as the backbone of civilization. Why? The reason is traditional. Thinking people are the successors of the "clerks" of the Middle Ages, the clergy who kept learning in the world and placed it under a debt of gratitude it can never repay. They were thinkers because they meditated; and it was because they meditated that they were the learned. How much more they owed to meditation than to books we may at least guess from the fact that books were scarce in their day. Now that books are plentiful and reading has largely supplanted meditation, we have no towering geniuses such as Aquinas, Duns Scotus and Albertus Magnus. We have more superficial knowledge spread out over mere people; but it was the old-day thinker who gave no foundation for even that.

Is meditation becoming a lost art? I fear that it is, at least amongst the laity. I fear even that hard work is keeping it at a disadvantage amongst the clergy. But can we afford to lose it? We cannot. Meditation is the key to a storehouse without which we would be clad only in intellectual rags and tatters, and often shoddy from the beginning. Meditation is the mystic vision that gives us a glimpse of the unrevealed beauties of Eternal Truth. Revelation gave us eyes to see. Meditation is the glass that gives our eyes the power to see further and see deeper. What the scientist is without his microscope is the Christian without the practice of meditation.

Eve's Apple

A fruit supposed to bear the mark of Eve's teeth is one of the many botanical curiosities of Ceylon. The tree on which it grows is known by the significant name of "the forbidden fruit," or "Eve's apple tree."

The blossom has a very pleasant scent, but the really remarkable feature of the tree, the one to which it owes its name, is the fruit. It is beautiful, and hangs from the tree in a peculiar manner.

Orange on the outside and deep crimson within, each fruit has the appearance of having had a piece bitten out of it. This fact, together with its poisonous quality, led the Mohammedan to represent it as the forbidden fruit of the Garden of Eden and turn men against it.

The mark upon the fruit is attributed to Eve. Why the bite of Adam did not also leave its mark is not known, but as only one piece seems to be missing, its loss is ascribed to the woman.

Smith—I see them fellows took a drop.

Jones—Took a drop? I should say they took the whole bottle.

A SENSIBLE MERCHANT.

Milburn's Sterling Headache Powders give women prompt relief from monthly pains, and have no bad after effects whatever. Be sure you get Milburn's. Price 25 cents a box.

She—Yes, my brother is thirty today. Fancy, there are eight years between us.

He—By Jove! I should never have thought of it. You look every bit as young as he does.

W. H. O. Wilkinson Streetford says:—"It affords me much pleasure to say that I experienced great relief from Muscular Rheumatism by using two boxes of Milburn's Rheumatic Pills. Price 25 cents a box."

Hearing a crash of glassware one morning, Mrs. Blank called to her maid in the adjoining room. "Nora, what on earth are you doing?"

"I'm doing nothin', mum," replied Nora; it's done."

Terrible Sufferer From Her Kidneys.

When the kidneys get out of order he back is sure to become affected, dull pain, sharp pains, quick wanges all point to the fact that the kidneys need attention.

Flitters and liniments may relieve for a short time, but to get rid of these pains you must get right at the seat of the trouble. You can do this by using Don's Kidney Pills and thus obtain permanent relief.

Mrs. John Stephenson, 115 Stephen St., Kingston, Ont., writes:—"I certainly must praise your Don's Kidney Pills. I was a terrible sufferer from my kidneys. I would have sworn pain in my back and awful headaches. I became very weak, and just felt as if I were being dragged down. I tried one box of Don's Kidney Pills, and to my surprise I felt better. I could work hard all day, and my back would not pain me at all. I can't praise them too much."

Don's Kidney Pills are 50c. per box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
