PORT GREVILLE, C.B., Dec. 31, '09.
Blacking & Mercantile Co., Ltd.
Dear Sirs,—Nearly one year ago I had my first order of Mathieu's Syrup from you. It was not known in this country, and I gave samples to several families whom I knew would use it. After a few weeks I began to have a call for it, and trade has increased wonderfully since. I have not the least doubt but that it will soon be the best selling remedy for coughs, colds, etc., on the market. In my store here sales are good and our people ask for it. Several stores in this country now keep it in stock and report sales increasing. I have bought from you since August 16th, 1907, 4 gross and have only 3 dozen on hand at this date, and which I am holding for retail trade in my store. Yours truly,
LOUIS A. McLANSON.

Continued.

On revisiting the office, a fragment of a letter written by Jane Eccles a few hours previous to her death, and evidently addressed to Mrs. Davies, was placed by Mr. Flint, who had by this time returned, before me. The following is an exact copy of it, with the exception that the intervals which I have marked with dots, were filled with erasures and blots, and that every word seemed to have been traced by a hand smitten with palsy:—

"FROM MY DEATH-PLACE, Midnight.
"DEAR MAM—No, beloved friend—mother, let me call you. Oh kind, gentle mother, I am to die. To be killed in a few hours by cruel men!—I, so young, so unprepared for death, and yet guiltless of offence for which they will have the heart to hang me. Nobody, they say, can save me now; yet if I could see the lawyer. I have been deceived, cruelly deceived, madam—brought up by lying hopes, till just now the thunder burst, and I—oh God!.... As they spoke, the fearful chapter in the Testament came bodily before me—the rending of the veil in twain, the trouble darkness, and the opened graves!.... I did not write for this, but my brain aches and dazes. It is too late—too late, they all tell me!.... Ah, if these dreadful laws were

WOMAN ESCAPES OPERATION

Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Elwood, Ind.—"Your remedies have cured me and I have only taken six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

I was sick three months and could not walk. I suffered all the time. The doctors said I could not get well without an operation, for I could hardly stand the pains in my sides, especially my right one, and down my right leg. I began to feel better when I had taken only one bottle of Compound, but kept on as I was afraid to stop too soon."—Mrs. SADIE MULLIN, 2728 N. E. St., Elwood, Ind.
Why will women take chances with an operation or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?
For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion, and nervous prostration.
If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be absolutely confidential, and the advice free.

afternoon of the morrow, (Sunday.)

I found that the convict had expressed great anxiety less I should decline to see him. My hoped for visit was the only matter which appeared to occupy the mind or excite the care of the mocking, desperate young man; even the early and shameful termination of his own life on the morrow, he seemed to be utterly reckless of. Thus prepared, I was the less surprised at the scene which awaited me in the prisoner's cell, where I found him in angry altercation with the pale and frightened chaplain.

I had never seen Justin Arnold before; this I was convinced of the instant I saw him; but he knew and greeted me instantly by name. His swarthy, excited features were flushed and angry; and after briefly thanking me for complying with his wishes, he added in a violent rapid tone, 'This good man has been teasing me. He says, and truly, that I have defied God by my life; and now he wishes me to mock that inscrutable Being, on the eve of death, by words without sense, meaning, or truth!'

'No, no, no!' ejaculated the reverend gentleman. 'I exhort you to true repentance, to peace, charity, to—'

'True repentance, peace, charity!' broke in the prisoner, with a scornful burst; 'when my heart is full of rage, and bitterness and despair! Give me time for this repentance which you say is so needful—to time to lure back long since banished hope, and peace, and faith! Poh!—you but flout me with words without meaning. I am unfit, you say, for the presence of men, but quite fit for that of God, before whom you are about to arrogantly cast me! Be it so—my deeds are upon my head! It is at least not my fault that I am hurried to judgment before the Eternal Judge himself commanded my presence there!

'He may be unworthy to live,' murmured the scared chaplain, 'but oh, how utterly unfit to die!'

'That is true,' rejoined Justin Arnold, with undiminished vehemence. 'Those, if you will, are words of truth and sense—go you and preach them to the makers and executors of English law. In the meantime I would speak privately with this gentleman.'

The reverend pastor, with a mute gesture of compassion, sorrow and regret, was about to leave the cell,

Rheumatism Cured in 3 Weeks

By Father Morrissey's "No. 7" Tablets.

Mr. James L.E. Johnstone, a prominent member of the Citizen's Band, of Chatham, N.B., writes:—
"I contracted Rheumatism by exposure five years ago, and was ailing for two months and in great pain all the time. I got Father Morrissey's No. 7 Tablets, and took them for about three weeks, when the Rheumatism all left me, and I have had no return of the pains since."
"Father Morrissey's No. 7" Tablets have a remarkable record of cures of Rheumatism and Kidney Troubles. They act directly on the Kidneys, which have become clogged with impurities and are therefore unable to free the blood of the poisons it is continually gathering from every part of the body. The tablets clear the kidneys and tone them up for their work so that they can properly purify the blood. Once the Uric Acid is taken out of the blood the agonizing pains stop, and the Rheumatism is cured. "No. 7" tablets cost 50c. at your dealer's, or from Father Morrissey Medicine Co., Ltd., Chatham, N.B. 79 when he was stayed by the prisoner, who exclaimed, 'Now, I think of it, you had better, sir, remain. The statement I am about to make cannot, for the sake of the victim's reputation, and for her friend's sake, have too many witnesses. You both remember Jane Eccles?' A broken exclamation from both of us answered him, and he quickly added—'Ah, you already guess the truth I see. Well, I do not wonder you should start and turn pale. It was a cruel, shameless deed—a dastardly murder if there was ever one. In a few words, if you interrupt me not, I will relate my share in the atrocious business.' He spoke rapidly, and once or twice during the brief recital, the moistened eye and husky voice betrayed emotions which his pride would have concealed.

Household Notes.

Ammonia and water will remove red ink stains.
One cake of compressed yeast is equal to a cupful of liquid yeast.
Borax wet with peroxide of hydrogen will often remove black ink stains.
Nickel may be kept bright by being rubbed with wool saturated in ammonia.
Sweet pickles chopped and spread between sliced bread make appetizing sandwiches.
All hard to fry fritters and doughnuts must be sizzling hot before putting in the batter.
A few shreds of candied orange peel will give a delicious flavor to a bread pudding.
A few drops of lemon juice added to eggs when they are being scrambled improves the dish.
Black lead mixed with vinegar will be found to give a specially good polish to the kitchen stove.
Alcohol and whiting make a good silver polish, excellent also for polishing plate glass mirrors.
A large round bottle will serve very well as a rolling pin and is more hygienic than the wooden pin.
A clean flour sack spread on the table of camphor will remove stains from mirrors or window glasses.
There is nothing better to use under carpets than old newspapers, as moths do not like printer's ink.
A weak solution of turpentine poured down the water-pipes once a week will drive the water-pipes away.
A good vegetable grater can be made from a tin nail cover by driving many holes through it with a nail.
Blood stains can generally be removed by soaking in cold water and salt. Follow with soap and water.
If cornmeal mush does not brown nicely when it is fried try brushing over each slice with white of an egg.
To remove a fresh millow stain wet in strong soda, cover with a paste of salt and soap, and put in the rain.
It is wiser both for economy and comfort to wear alternately two pairs of shoes, instead of one pair every day.
Raw eggs rubbed into the hair and scalp before washing are excellent, and tend to prevent the hair from turning gray.
Rub over new linings with hard and thoroughly heat it in the oven before using, and thus protect it from rusting.
Dipping the tips of the fingers in warm olive oil every night is the best method for keeping the nails in good condition.
