The Advocate Asks:

"WHY ARE NOT MORE MEN AT WORK?"

The above question which we have taken from the headlines of our contemporary, the Evening Advocate, is in startling contrast to the following statement taken from the Prime Minister's Manifesto:—

"I have succeeded in developing an industrial programme which will be put into effect immediately, will rehabilitate the financial position of the Colony, enormously increase the business activities in the Colony, and will launch our people on the broad river of abundance, prosperity and success."

Was there ever a promise more full of hope uttered? Was ever a question more expressive of helplessness written?

Two months have passed since the reins of power were placed in the hands of the Government. Thousands of men are waiting for the message from the Humber, and they wait in vain. They receive instead through the paper that voices the sentiments of the party in power a question indicating inability, inaction, or indifference. They ask for bread; they are given a stone.

In the Evening Mail of March 31st appeared the following:—
"Endorsement of this proposition now put to the country by Premier Squires and the Liberal Party means immediate work for men of all trades. Four thousand men—carpenters, masons, bricklayers, handymen, men to work with pick and shovel will be required practically at once so that the Company can make the most of the summer and fall months to get its buildings ready so that interior work can be carried on all next winter. That huge army of workmen will be furnished with employment when the Electors endorse Premier Squires and his Government."

The Opposition all through the recent campaign classified all such promises as political kite flying, and emphasized the impossibility of finding immediate work for thousands in an enterprise in its infancy.

While the Advocate attempts to shift the burden of responsibility to the shoulders of the Armstrong Whitworth Company, at the same time it also tries to spur on the Government to fulfil its obligation. We are strongly in accord with our contemporary in this.

The issue, however, cannot be sidetracked. The Government assumed the responsibility; it is up to them to find a way out of the difficulty. If they are incapable of protecting the people's interests, they must give place to others who can and will.

The exhibition of wasteful expenditure of public funds which has been published during the past week has aroused a strong feeling of resentment. It requires but little more to cause public opinion to demand a reckoning on the part of the party by whom they have been misled.

Truly indeed, Sir William, the electorate expect someone to get a move on. The time has indeed come when something must materialize.

A Musical Treat.

A treat is in store for those who attend the concert at the Methodist College Hall on Tuesday, 24th. Capt. Campbell, who is kindly being assisted by Miss Eleanor Mews, is well known to St. John's audiences, and has never failed to thoroughly please his hearers, whilst Miss Mews, who has only been heard once in St. John's, charmed her audience. Those who failed to hear Miss Mews on the 5th are advised to embrace the opportunity of doing so on Tuesday next, when by special request she will repeat some of the numbers given at her Recital. The proceeds of the concert will go to the Boy Scouts' and Girl Guides' Associations. These associations are world renowned for the excellent training they give girls and boys. Throughout the war, the Boy Scouts did extremely good work during air raids in England. These lads were employed in blowing the "all clear" on their bugles, which meant they had to reach their allotted posts whilst shrapnel, nose caps and shell cases from the anti-aircraft guns were still falling and wounding. The stout little lads went on with their work cheerfully and efficiently, and as in war, so in peace, they are trained to place duty first. The sister organization—the Girl Guides—aims at making girls useful in their homes, thoughtful for others, and everything to fit them for the very important duties they will be called upon to fulfil later in life. These two organizations work hand in hand with the Brigades and similar organizations in caring for our girls and boys, making them useful, healthy and happy. Our readers can show their appreciation of the artists and organizations by their patronage, and at the same time enjoy a most excellent programme.

New Industry Starting.

During the past few days a new company has been incorporated under the name of the Notre Dame Herring and Oil Co., Ltd., with a nominal capital of $100,000. This company proposes to erect a factory in Notre Dame Bay for the production of herring, oil and fertilizer. The promoters hold patents on an improved process and the industry promises to be an important one. Let us hope they will receive every encouragement. The office of the company is in Muir Building.

Has Newfoundland Wife.

It may be interesting to learn that Flight Commander Capt. Edward Rice, captain of the team which won the relay race during the Royal Air Force Pageant at Hendon, England, on June 30th, is married to a Newfoundland lady, nee Miss Marion Saunders, sister of Mr. H. Saunders, Supt. of the Anglo.

Replacing "Advance."

Information has been received by Messrs. A. E. Hickman and Co., Ltd., to the effect that the owners of the ill-fated "Advance," intend to put another steamer on the Boston-Halifax-St. John's route. The new ship for the service has not been announced, but it is quite possible that the "Alliance" will be the ship decided upon.

Forest Fire at Arnold's Cove.

FLAMES QUICKLY SUBDUED.
A bush fire was raging a few miles west of Arnold's Cove yesterday and last evening, and before it got to serious proportions residents living in that neighbourhood beat the flames out and had it under control by midnight. Very little damage was done. The fire referred to was the cause of so much smoke in the city last night.

For the Benefit of the Road Hog.

The genus road hog is fortunately not common in our midst, and is all the more noticeable on that account when he is met. The surface of Top-sail Road has been greatly improved recently but not, we might point out, simply for the purpose of allowing certain undesirable to exhibit their driving ability nor to enable them to make a greater display of their lack of consideration for others. One person in particular whose name and number are known was very much in evidence last night. Unless he mends his manners and pays closer attention to the rules of the road, his case will receive further attention. Too much stress cannot be laid on the gravity of driving through the nearby settlements at excessive speed. At present there are in addition to residents, many families from the city who live in hourly dread of the speed artist who is invariably careless and unskilled in the handling of a car.

The New Fish Market.

There is quite a lot of dissatisfaction amongst fish vendors over the market which has recently been erected in Browning's Cove. The market has only half the accommodation of the one it replaces, and the fishermen are compelled to place their fish on pieces of board, out in the fifth and subject to every facility should be given them to keep things clean, and to make their commodities as attractive as possible.

The officers and crew of H. M. S. Constance, now in port, will hold an informal dance in the C. C. Hall to-night. MINERS VOTE TO RETURN TO WORK.

SYDNEY, July 19.
Five hundred miners comprising Caledonia, local U.M.W. voted to-night to return to work and will report at the mines Monday. They delayed that long, they said, in order to give other striking miners a chance to consider the situation hoping that all might return to work in a body. Stellarton miners will meet to-morrow, Friday morning to decide whether or not to obey Lewis that they return to work. The main body of Cape Breton miners including Sydney miners local, which met to-night will remain out for the present in defiance of Lewis orders. Silby Barrett, Provisional President, and his associates will hold an organization meeting to-morrow morning and will send formal order to Livingstone and his officers to vacate U.M.W. headquarters and hand over property of District 26. He will give them until Monday to carry out the order and he will take legal action if the request is not met. General belief in Cape Breton is that the strike is disintegrating while paramount interest is centered around warfare between International headquarters and District 26.

Pointed Pans.

Mary had a great big love
It was the "Golden Cair"
The way she chased and captured it
Made everybody laugh.

"In the spring time a young man fancy" turn to.
"How on earth can I look after my family if there's no work for Newfoundlanders on the 'umber'."
Atta Boy.

They tell us it's our own fault
If not we'll all go under.
So let us make a "bow-wow"
"Newfoundlanders for the Humber."

We know we are not polished,
Nor yet of great renown.
But we have a few good white men yet
Livin' in this one horse town.

"Father's and mother's can do 'Child Welfare' work too when they have sufficient money to buy food for the kids. That money can't be had unless men get work to do. Newfoundlanders are very modest in their demand."

A sailor's wife a sailor's "star" shall be
Ye ho! my lads across the sea.
A sailor's wife a sailor's "star" shall be
His bonny ship's come in from sea.

She was a dear old lady
With hair of silver gray
And she had a kindly pity
Tho' she was't here to stay.

But the many kindly actions
She helped another do.
Will always be remembered
By the mother's, "me and you."

She never tried to do things
She knew she couldn't do.
But supported every effort
That was noble good and true.

A sailor's wife a sailor's star shall be
Ye ho! my lads across the sea
A sailor's wife a sailor's star shall be
My ship's come home from sea.
