encing to-day, the Majestic will return to its usual schetwo shows nightly, beginning p.m. The feature to-night is ainted Lady," starring Dorothy aill and George O'Brien. This e is full of action. One point by the painted woman in production is that her unactivities with men of the and unmarrying kind are upon just sufficiently to make at of her career apparent. Preting throughout the feature is n of the clean mind and heart, by George O'Brien, who makes ately possible for this paintto return to the life of respecin which category she really ways belonged.

o-rea concluded a very sucengagement last night, as did ohnson, the dancer. Under dircumstances, the Majestic reto its individual attention of big features in the form of lays, etc. The admission fee at is 20 cents.
