Clothing Clothing Clothing

The women always get the credit for ferrioting out all the bargains that's going, said a lady in the store the other day, but I notice my husband is always anxious to get the "Aylmer Express" and read over your bargain list in Clothing.

Boots and Shoes of all descriptions. All these Goods will be included in this special bargain week.

Come and inspect for yourself. It is a pleasure to show these Goods, whether you are prepared to buy at present or not.

We offer cash value of $1.30 for Dried Apples; together with our special bargains this week you can easily count on $1.60 to $1.75 per bushel.

GLENGOLIN.

The many friends of Mr. Wm. Cook will be sorry to learn that he will shortly move to Springfield. Mr. Robt. Johnson has been appointed section boss in his place and will move his family here soon.

Mrs. S. Millard, who has been laid up for the past six weeks with typhoid fever, we are glad to say, is much better. She was moved to her home about two miles north of here on Saturday.

FT. BERWELL.

Mr. Albert B. Deacon, so long and favorably known in these parts, died very suddenly on Sunday morning. Dr. Hoover was with him all night and done all he could for the unfortunate man. He was in Tilsonburg on Saturday, apparently in his usual health, and came home in the afternoon. He complained of not feeling very well and went to the house. The remains were interred in the Baptist cemetery on Tuesday.

Mr. George Hyde, living about three miles east of here, died very suddenly on Saturday, aged 70 years.

Mr. James Butcher who has been seriously ill, is some better.

Mr. James Atkins has congestion of the lungs.

GROTESBUND.

Miss Maud Russ, of Yarmouth, spent last week at Mr. J. McClelland's. Mrs. J. McClelland enjoyed a visit from her cousin, Detective Nickle and son, of London.

All were pleased to see Mr. Godfrey at church on Sunday morning, the first since his accident.

The many friends of Mr. Godfrey turned out last Thursday afternoon and husked out a lot of corn for him.

Mr. Little, of Dunboyno, intends moving on Mr. Asa Marr's farm about the first of the year, he having leased it for a term of years.

YOUPELL & WRONG

IMPORTERS.

...Corsets at 69c.

We place on sale Friday morning 60 pairs only Dresden Corsets, sizes from 19 to 26, steel filled, perfect fitting, made to sell at $1.00 per pair. While they last our price will be 69c. This is the chance of the season.

Nº 450

LADIES' JACKETS

Twenty only all-wool Jackets, double breasted, box front, this season's cut, in black and colors, sizes from 30 to 40, regular price $5.00; Friday and following days while they last at $3.50. Odd sizes in German tailor-made Jackets, in black and colors, regular price from $6 to $12. The balance of lines nearly sold out to clear at greatly reduced prices. Ladies, this is your chance to buy. Come early before the best are gone.

FUR JACKETS AND CAPES.

The mild weather has made no difference with the sale of our Fur Garments. Last season our many customers found their mistake in holding off. This season they are having the pick of first-class Garments early. Already we have repeated several lines in Astrachan Jackets and Capes. We ask you not to buy until you carefully look through our stock. The styles and qualities we show are the best. Sole agents for Silverman, Boulter & Co's celebrated Astrachan Jackets. Every Jacket fully guaranteed.

The Ordered Clothing Department

Is working day and night to keep up with the rush of orders. Mr. Wm. Boettinger, Aylmer's up-to-date cutter, is giving his many patrons universal satisfaction, while others fail to fit you, one trial will convince that Clothing made here is always right. His system for stout men or slim men, tall or stout, never fails to produce perfect fitting Clothing.

This week we have bought at a sacrifice from a manufacturer's agent: Twenty Scotch Tweed Suits, no two alike, at one-third their actual value. These we will make to order while they last at $9.00 a Suit. Canadian and Irish Serges in blue and black. The Suit at $9, $10, $12, $15. West of England Worsted and Cheviots, in fancy and black, $10, $12, $15, $17 and $20. Overcoats in blue, black and jet black Kerseys or Beavers, made to order with best trimmings and workmanship, $10, $11, $12, $14 and $16.

We guarantee first-class trimmings in every Garment, also the fit and finish. Bring your dried apples. We always pay the top prices in exchange for goods at the closest cash prices.

YOUPELL & WRONG, Aylmer's 'Noted' Dry Goods House.

RICHMOND

Miss B. Hushal, of Stratfordville, was the guest of Mrs. A Veitch for a few days last week.

Mrs. R. Summers, Misses C. Berry and Howell, of North Hall, were the guests of Dr. Riddell on Sunday.

On Sunday the annual election of officers for the Sunday school was held but there was no change except that of organist Miss Doan being appointed to take the place of Miss Andrews who has resigned.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mitchell spent Sunday in Luton as the guests of Mr. F. E. Dunn.

Card of Thanks.

There are times when words will not express the deep feelings of gratitude one feels, and in that condition I find myself at present. The many touching acts of tender sympathy displayed by neighbors and friends as the time I suffered an irreparable loss so suddenly in the loss of my beloved wife will always remain as bright spots in my memory, and will assuredly be still more appreciated when time has in a degree lifted the cloud that now overcomes me.
