Getty to David Thomas, and by David Thomas assigned to the Dominion Savings and In-vestment Society. At the time of the mortgage, the assignment of the chattel mortgage, a copy of the mortgage and a warrant to distrain the goods and chattels upon the premises of the plaintiff's husband, Byron Getty, was delivered to McEvoy, and by him delivered to the defendant Fisher, with instructions to seize the goods and chattels mortgaged. The mortgage at the time of the seizue was overdue, and in full force and effect. They asked that the case be dismissed. In this case numerous objections were made by Mr. Magee, defendant's counsel, to questions put by the plain-tiff's solicitor. These were so numer-
