TURKEY SHORT OF FUNDS.

Constantinople, Nov. 12.—Notwithstanding the financial difficulties under which the Government labors, the Porte not having enough money whereof to meet the expenses thus far entailed by the calling out of the Redifls already under arms, it has been decided to summon the remaining battalions belonging to the fourth corps.

THE CLYDE LABOR TROUBLE.

London, Nov. 12.—The disputes between the Clyde shipbuilders and their employees continue without any change.
The builders have lost an order from the Italian Government for the construction of three gunboats and twelve torpedo boats. The Italian Government has placed an order for torpedo boats with German builders for the same reason.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Paris, Nov. 12.—Mme. Nina Moreau, wife of M. George Moreau, was burned to death accidentally in her residence here Monday morning. She was an American society woman before her marriage to M. Moreau. Her maiden name was Nina Warren, and her home was in Chicago, where she was a well-known and accomplished pianist.

FIGHTING IN EAST AFRICA.

Lisbon, Nov. 12.—A dispatch received here today from Lorenzo Marquez, Portuguese East Africa, says the Portuguese troops have attacked the Armenian villages of Douchgel and Faucon, near Lake Coolera. After an engagement lasting 40 minutes the natives were repulsed with great loss of life. Of the Portuguese force five were killed and 35 were wounded.

LUNCHEONED THE KING.

London, Nov. 12.—The Lord Mayor, Sir Walter Henry Wilkin, gave a state luncheon to the King of Portugal yesterday at the Mansion House. The Marquis of Salisbury and other Ministers were present, as were the ambassadors and Ministers of the different foreign countries represented in London. It was remarked that the only absentees among the members of the diplomatic corps were the United States and Turkish ambassadors.

THE FRENCH BUDGET.

Paris, Nov. 12.—M. Cocher's report on the budget shows that the deficit in 1892 was 9,000,000 francs; in 1893, 54-000,000 francs, and in 1894, 21,000,000 francs. The deficit in 1895, as far as calculable, is likely to also amount to 21,000,000 francs. The expenditures increased at the rate of 60,000,000 francs yearly. For the receipts and expenditures will be reduced by the budget committee, leaving a normal surplus of 567,000,000 francs.

NO PANIC.

London, Nov. 12.—Business on the Stock Exchange fluctuated yesterday morning, but during the afternoon it was decidedly better. American stocks were very strong, especially Louisville and Canadians. Trouble was experienced by some of the smaller dealers, and a few of the longer brokers had to be held up in difficulty.

At Paris—Business on the Bourse closed firm.

At Berlin—Stocks on the bourse were very flat on account of vague rumors from London of failures in that market.

At Vienna—The bourse was very dull.

DUNRAVEN'S MISTAKE.

London, Nov. 12.—Lord Dunraven's friends now admit that he made a serious mistake in issuing the pamphlet published by the Times in reply to the report of the New York Club on the American cup race. One of the highest authorities here, a gentleman who is in constant touch with the leading members of the royal yacht squadron, informed a representative of the Associated Press today that Lord Dunraven's action was a grossly regrettable and generally condemned by yachtsmen. The press, as a rule, has begun to follow the lead of the St. James' Gazette, which strongly condemned Lord Dunraven yesterday.

A FEVER SHIP.

Newcastle-on-Tyne, Aug. 12.—The Norwegian ship Mindelt, Capt. Christiansen, from Mobile, Sept. 11, for West Hartlepool, has been towed in here with eleven of her crew prostrated with yellow fever. Two other members of the crew died on the voyage of that disease. Owing to the spread of sickness among the crew of the Mindelt her commander was unable to handle her sails, and she drifted for several days, and finally was picked up

WILDE WITHOUT ASSETS

London, Nov. 12.—For the first time since his incarceration in Wardsworth Prison, Oscar Wilde was brought out into the open air yesterday for the purpose of being publicly examined in the bankruptcy court regarding his assets. Wilde looked pale and weary, and was but a shadow of his former nonchalant self. He answered all the questions asked him in monosyllables, and with a low voice. He testified that in recent years he had lived beyond his income and had been sometimes paid in advance for his plays. Hence certain theatrical managers were his creditors, instead of his debtors. The court then passed upon Wilde's accounts, which showed that his liabilities were $16,955, and that he had no available assets. It transpired in the course of the examination that there was a marriage settlement in favor of Wilde's wife of $4,000 a year. The court room was crowded with curious listeners.

THE POWERS PULL TOGETHER.

The Standard says: Great Britain has decided to materially strengthen her squadron in Chinese waters. The first-class cruiser Edgar and the second-class cruiser Spartan, which were sent to join the squadron, temporarily during the Chinese-Japanese war, will remain permanently attached to the fleet, and some of the other vessels will be replaced by newer and more powerful ships.
The Japanese and the Russians, both, first-class armed cruisers of 5,600 tons.

A Paris dispatch says: At a Cabinet Council the Ministers of Italy, M.
Lodovico, announced that the ironclad Devastation, the cruisers Charney and Faucon, and the dispatch boat Linois, had sailed from the Piraeus, Greece, for Constantinople.

A Rome dispatch says: At a Cabinet Council today, the Ministers approved of a proposal to send an Italian naval division to join the English squadron in the Levant. It is believed that the warships of the several powers will rendezvous at some point close to the entrance of the Lardarielles, where, should they be called thence, they will be within easy striking distance of Constantinople.

THE OTHER SIDE.

The Turkish Legation at Washington has received from the Sublime Porte the following telegram: "The Armenian rioters at Zeitoun attacked the village of Tchoukar, Hissar, killing 25 Mus-suls, and carried away with them arms and cattle and belongings of the Muslims. Villagers of Douchgel, and murdered the secretary of the tax collector of Zeitoun. The wife and four children of this functionary are missing. According to fresh advices from Douchgel, the Armenians are alone responsible for the recent disorders, which originated solely by the rebels firing on the mosques at the hour of prayer, and by their making an armed attack on the Mussulmans. The rebels broke out at Douchgel, and 30 per cent of the shops were destroyed, as also about all the merchandise burned and destroyed at Douchgel. All the Mussulmans contrary to the above propagated by the Armenian committee and their friends to misguide and deceive public opinion. The Vail of Adani reports that about 200 Armenians disguised as Christians, attacked the Mussulman villages of Zeitoun, Beets and Nari, committing all sorts of depredations."

CABLE NOTES.

The proposed line of steamers between Vancouver and New Zealand has been offered by the New Zealand Government the handsome subsidy of £30,000 a year if the terminal point is in New Zealand, £20,000 if it is in Australia.

The condition of George Augustus Sala, the distinguished journalist, is reported much worse.

SAVED BY SAWDUST.

Algonac, Mich., Nov. 12.—Henry Cartwright, of the shipyard, was thrown about 100 feet while hanging on a really used in loading a heavy bar. Had he alighted on hard ground instead of on sawdust, he would have been killed. As it was he was badly injured about the feet and back.

TO BE TRIED FOR MANSLAUGHTER.

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 12.—Mrs. Mercer Beer, who treated the child, Percy Beer, who died Oct. 28, of diphtheria, while under treatment of the Christian Scientists, was yesterday morning committed for trial by Police Magistrate Denison on a charge of manslaughter.

CANDIDATE FOR THE DEATH
CHAIR.

New York, Nov. 12.—"Batt" Shea, who was convicted of murdering Robt.
Ross at the polls at Troy, N. Y., at the spring election of 1894, and whose case was finally decided adversely to him by the court, has been sentenced to be executed during the week commencing Dec. 23.

BEAUTIES OF PROTECTION.

Galesburg, Mich., Nov. 12.—J. J. Littlejohn, of Galesburg, shipped a colt to his brother-in-law, in due time received notice from someone on the border that the animal was held for duties amounting to some $200. As the consignee had paid for the colt previous to its shipment, Mr. Littlejohn was losing but little sleep, though the purchaser is probably interested.

A $10,000 SURPRISE.

Adrian, Mich., Nov. 12.—The First Presbyterian Church was yesterday presented with a brand new $10,000 parsonage. A parsonage was provided for in the will of Samuel E. Hart, but this house, it was supposed, was being built for Charles Hart, a son of the legator. The presentation by Judge Geddes, executor of the will, was a genuine surprise.

HIS WIFE WILL DEFEND HIM.

Wichita, Kan., Nov. 12.—Charles Lease, druggist, and husband of Mary E. Lease, the noted Kansas lawyer and politician, spent Monday night in Wichita jail, having been arrested on complaint of the president of the State Board of Pharmacy for violating the State pharmacy law, in that he refused to pay the annual 50 cents fee prescribed by the statutes for the support of the board. Mrs. Lease advised her husband that the law was unconstitutional, and she will defend him in the court.

WEST WELLINGTON CONVENTION

Palmerston, Nov. 12.—The Liberal convention to choose a candidate for West Wellington in the approaching bye-election for the Local Legislature met at Drayton yesterday, with President L. Brislin in the chair. There was a large attendance besides the 102 delegates and
