Sale of Choice Building Lots in New Survey, "Home-Hurst."

DO NOT MISS THIS OPPORTUNITY

"HOME-HURST"

This survey fronts on the north side of Lovett street, just east of Rectory, and comprises 65 choice building lots. Already there are twelve nice dwelling houses. It is close to all the large factories in the East End. The land is high and dry. Streets graded. City water in every lot. Chesley avenue school at corner of property. Fire protection. Police protection. Accessibility to schools, street railway and all other city conveniences. Do not make the mistake of buying a lot on the outskirts of the city, simply because you can get it cheap. The Geo. White & Sons' new factory will be erected close to the property, so that values are bound to increase.

A Safe Investment

99 times out of 100 is in real estate. If you want to erect a house on one of these lots, money will be furnished you to build same. While you are paying for your home, you are living in a nice new dwelling supplied with all modern conveniences. Get on the ground, look at all the large industries in the East End. Then chance your fortune. It is the greatest chance you ever had to make money without risk.

Free copy of Registrar's Abstract. Free deed. No taxes for 1908. Remember, that eligible building lots in desirable locations are every day growing less and less. If you fail to secure one of these lots now, you will only have your- self to blame, as you have had fair warning.

King Edward as a Farmer P. Walsh's Bulletin

It is a well-known fact that King Edward is a shrewd farmer, and he has the reputation of being the best judge of pigs and one of the best judges of poultry in all England. His profits from his farming operations are estimated at $200,000 a year. If he should lose his job of ruling the British Empire he would strongly advise him to buy a farm in Ontario, where farming is more profitable than in any other part of the world.

Dashing Easter Millinery

"Prettiest We Have Seen in Years"

The comment of many admirers who have viewed our great Easter display.

Besides, we are not quantity hat makers and will not produce great lots of a style, but rather choose to hold to EXCLUSIVENESS (which our designers can do). Just as easy to vary two hats as to make them alike, and "VARIETY IS THE KEYNOTE" of this display.

Visit our millinery showroom and just ask for a hat to suit your individuality, and see what we can produce. Come, if possible, in the morning and we think you'll want to live with these charming hats all the day. Easter display now ready.
