Operators, Dealers and Miners All Gained, But the Public Paid For It.

Washington, March 1 .- Hard coal ompanies increased the wages of their employes $4,000,000 a year by the strike agreement of last May and increased the price of anthracite to consumers In the on an investigation by the bureau of tees two labor submitted to the House today. The report submitted by Secretary Nagel is the result of an investigation conducted in response to a House reso lution asking for the "elements of cos and profit included in the present high price of anthracite." An average increase of 26 cents ton in wholesale coal prices was discovered to have been made since the strike agreement of last May.

Increases of Wages. In spite of the fact that the workers penefited about $4,000,000 in increased wages during the year, the report adds that "the recent increases in prices have been more than sufficient to compensate fully those companies whose costs of production have increased more rapidly during recent years, and of whom there are several whose costs of production either decreased or remained stationary during the same

POWERFUL GROUP SAYS MR. MONK

Declares Certain Set Is Behind Naval Contributions With Selfish Ends.

Believes Farmers of Ontario Desire a Referendum on the [Canadian Press.] Montreal, March 3. — Hon. Monk, who retired from the Borden cabinet when he found he was unable to accept the Prime Minister's naval policy, without a referendum, and who has been confined to his residence for some time, has recovered sufficiently to be abroad. He still bears traces of health. Discussing the naval question today,

Mr. Monk said: "Our Parliament, under the terms of the act of Confederation, is empowered to deal with the defence of Canada. Another point, the allegation of unanimity of opinion outside this province, is not well founded. I visited many parts of Ontario last summer, taking in almost every port from Cornwall to Port Arthur and Fort William, I sought to ascertain the exact state of public opinion upon this question from the surest sources. The conclusion I arrived at was that the people of Ontario, while quite ready and willing to do their duty in this matter, are by no means a unit as to what that duty is, and I failed to discern anywhere any signs of impatient or fretting at the delay. The farmers seemed unanimous for a referendum." Agriculture-R. Oke. W. J. Reid. J. A Grave Danger.

In conclusion Mr. Monk said: "It is generally recognized that there are groups of men in this country, outquestions, and such a growing power a grave danger, and is subversive to freedom. It is known to everyone that a certain set have conducted with extraordinary skill, since several years, an elaborate campaign all over the This group have limitless resources, an extraordinary sway over newspapers and seem ready to ride roughshod over all who do not agree with them. Som are sincere, but many are interested in a variety of ways, and they have gained a peculiar ascendency in this country. Parliament itself does not seem entirely free from their influ-

the Dundas street bridge on Wednesday Shortage of Priests Makes Its. Erection Imperative He Says.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ingersoll, March 3 .- Bishop Fallon, ondon, speaking in the Church of the Sacred Heart here yesterday, discussed some length the big new seminary to erected in London shortly. He said e had had the project in mind for some ime, but not until a prominent London Catholic donated the site did it assume tefinite shape. Bishop Fallon said he proposed to use forty per cent of the funds obtained for equipping the seminary and the remaining 60 per cent will go towards an enowment fund for its maintenance. It was not planned, he said, to make the quarters very elaborate, as he did not wish the priests who were sent out to become used to more luxurious quarers than many of them would have when they were appointed to charges. In this connection he complimented the people of Ingersoll, who had provided quarters which, he said, were equalled by only a very few in the diocese Bishop Fallon stated that there was the most urgent need of the new seminary, as there probably never was such a shortage of priests before as the church is experiencing at the present time, All through the Dominion, he said, the same trouble is being experienced. The offering for the day towards the new seminary is understood to have been
