market this morning. Up till 9:30 o'clock, three loads of hay and a couple loads of oats had been soid. The demand was brisk. Hay went back to $15.50 per ton for the top price.

Oats are going from $1.38 to $1.45 per bushel, with a brisk demand.

There is a good demand for straw.

There has been tone in for serve time.

May had worked 50,000 bushels of wheat, and fair sales are also being made of oats and barley. During the week the amount of sales for export has been to be enough wheat offered to fill requirements.

The cash demand for wheat in the first hours of business was good but on the weakening values a luil set in. The demand for oats is only fair, but there was a better inquiry for barley.

There has been none in for some time, consequently the demand is brisk. There is no change in the prices of hogs. There will be a shipment on the clearing house today were:
