Weifare Fund "go-getters," after the inspirational meeting of team captains last night, started out this morning in a final attempt to "put over" the big drive. A little over $10,000 was filed away in the treasury yesterday, bringing the total up to $0,000. This leaves $20,000 to get the total up to $0,000. before the big meeting at Masonic Hall tonight.

Tomorrow London's traveling men take up the torch in their week-end cleanup. Headed by A. E. Barbour, the traveling troops will begin the first assault of their crusade Saturday. Two hundred and forty men form a little battalion with which to invade London's pocketbook in the name of humanity. One year they swept the city to the extent of $25,000. If this is duplicated the Welfare men need have no misgivings regarding the outcome of the drive.

Complete Shake-Up of County Constabulary Also Asked For in Report.

The appointment of Detective-Sergeant Harry Down, of the London police force, as high constable and special O. T. A. enforcement officer for Middlesex, and a complete shakeup of the present county constabulary system is called for in the report of the constabulary committee of the county council, which was submitted to the councillors in special session at the county buildings this morning. The committee recommends that Detective Down be paid a salary of $2,700 a year; that he be furnished with a car, to be maintained by the county, and that he be given a full time assistant. Detective Down said at noon today that he would accept the appointment at the salary stated and that he would b ready to take over the high constable's duties whenever the appointment is approved by the council. Six Constables.

The recommendation is also made that six constables be appointed to form with the high constable the new county constabulary system, and that all constables at present in the employ of the county be asked for their resignations.

The report was read this morning, and discussion on the recommenda-tions will take place this afternoon. five recommendations submitted by the special committee are
