ENSEMBLE SUITS FEATURE COMING STYLES FOR SPRING

Major Ingram and A. Trick of Smallman Firm Submit to Interview.

JUST BACK FROM N. Y.

Cross-Stripe Shirts For Men-Bow-Wow Belts and Balbriggans for Women.

If you're a woman the chief thing that's worrying you now is clothes. Not so much whether you can pay for them. It's a little too early for that. But rather which way the styles are going to jump. And whether there's any chance of making last season's costume "do." The best way to stop the worry is to take a trip to New York. The next best thing is to have a heart to heart talk with someone who's been popular in spite of their recent togue. there. That's just what I did.

I'd heard (no matter how) that Major Gordon Ingram and Albert home of the styles. So I pattered down to the shop as fast as my goloshes and the wet, icy streets would

They weren't going to know a thing I didn't. Not if I could help it, even though I didn't have the price of a New York ticket in my stocking.

They were awfully decent and told me everything they knew.

Ensemble Madness.

I gathered, first of all, that ensemble suits are to be the "whole thing." Indeed, New York city ap-pears to have gone "ensemble" mad. There are ensemble bothroom sets. This doesn't mean enameled tubs for enameled-faced women, but merely that milady of style must have matching bathrobe, bath mats and towels.

The most intriguing of ensembles are the bow-wow belts—just narrow leather belts with matching leather wrightles, which health of the property of the cown is holding the centre of interest, for there practically all the trimming is located. Often it is neaked or dented to suit the works. wristlets which buckle over the sleeves to hold them trigly in place
