SPECIAL TO THE DAILY BRITISH COLONIST

Europe.

FLORENCE, Midnight, Nov. 3.—Garibaldi remains at Monte Rotondo, in his entrenchments, awaiting an attack. Garibaldi refuses the King's summons to disband, unless a change is made in the present Ministry.

Napoleon has proposed to Victor Emmanuel to submit the settlement of the Roman question to the inhabitants of Rome and the Papal provinces by a popular vote. Italy declines to accept this plan for a solution of the question in which the interest of the whole nation is deeply concerned.

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 2.—It is again reported that the United States has purchased the Danish West Indies, and the amount is now stated at fourteen millions in gold, to be paid to Christensen, the former Governor of St. Thomas, who will be sent to Washington to complete the transfer.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—Brazilian papers say the Allied forces won't undertake any action for the siege of the fortifications of Humaita.

A farewell dinner to Charles Dickens, previous to his departure for America, came off Saturday night at the Freemason's Tavern; it was given by his literary friends—Bulwer Lytton, President.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—It appears that Napoleon did not suggest the proposition of the settlement of the Roman question by a popular vote in the Roman Provinces, but it was the spontaneous plan of the Italian, French and Prussian Governments.

Late despatches from Florence show a vote of the towns in the Province of Rome unanimous for Italy.

Napoleon regards it as Victor Emmanuel's duty to expel Garibaldi; if that is done, Napoleon will withdraw.

PARIS, Nov. 4.—The Moniteur officially declares that on the first of November Monsieur will instruct the French Charge d'Affaires at Florence that if the Italians advance into the Papal territory in violation of the September treaty, Napoleon could not approve the act, and asks an explanation of Italy.

Only two French regiments are in Rome, but large bodies of troops are constantly leaving Toulon for Civita Vecchia. The Papal forces will assume the offensive immediately.

BERLIN, Nov. 4.—Bismarck officially announces that Prussia will be neutral for the present on the Roman question.

VIENNA, Nov. 5.—In a debate in the Diet, the policy of Austria was discussed.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Garibaldi's army was complete. It is said he lost 900 killed and 1,000 wounded. All the balance surrendered to the Italian regular troops. No French took part in the battle. It is reported at Florence that Garibaldi's mind is affected.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—Parliament is called to re-assemble on the 19th of November.

The first squadron for the Abyssinian expedition has left Egypt for Abyssinia. The Viceroy of Egypt has offered to assist England and send a corps of natives to join the British forces.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—Parliament is called to re-assemble on the 19th of November. Edward James, Member of Parliament from Manchester, died at Madrid.

A serious bread riot occurred at Exeter yesterday and to-day. Every meat and bread shop in the city was sacked by rioters. At date of last despatch incendiary fires were breaking out in different places in town. Great excitement prevails. The authorities have applied to Government for troops to quell disturbance.

PARIS, Nov. 4.—The Moniteur publishes the particulars of a battle near Tivoli. Thirty thousand insurgents were either killed, wounded or made prisoners of war. Forty thousand Garibaldians were marched to reinforce the insurgents, but were stopped, disarmed, and turned back. The greatest agitation prevails throughout Italy.

New York cable specials give details of the battle of Tivoli. Garibaldi was completely routed. It is said he lost nine hundred killed and one thousand wounded. All the remainder surrendered to the Italian regular troops.

No French troops took part in the route.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—Noon.—The riots which occurred at several points have been suppressed.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—The bread riots have extended to Axminster, where the grain warehouses were sacked. Axminster is the location of several extensive factories. The laboring men are numerous and determined. Quiet has not yet been restored at Axminster or Exeter.

PARIS, Nov. 4.—Despatches from Rome this morning say that Papal troops, supported by the French, attacked Garibaldi at Montorio and defeated him.

Some say Garibaldi is killed. Another account says he retreated and surrendered to the Italian troops. La Marmora, who had been here on a secret mission, the nature of which is not divulged, has returned to Florence, having accomplished the object of his mission.

The ultimatum of Napoleon was presented to the Italian Government on Sunday. A reply was demanded. Garibaldi arrived at Spezia on board an Italian man-of-war, as prisoner of the Italian Government. It is believed that the defeat of Garibaldi cancels the ultimatum.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The disturbances caused by the want of employment and scarcity of food continue. Riots are reported in Torquay and other places. The troubles in Exeter have been suppressed, and the town is quiet. A Royal Commission has been appointed to inquire into the Protestant Church establishment in Ireland, with Earl Stanhope as chairman.

The Times predicts that should Napoleon fail to bring about a general conference of the European powers to settle the Roman question, he will abandon the defence of temporal power of the Pope, and leave Italy to decide the future position of Rome.

PARIS, Nov. 7.—There have been serious riots incited by the party of action in various parts of Italy, particularly in Milan, where the troops were called out to quell the disturbances. Many of the rioters were killed and wounded.

Information from Rome says that the pontifical authorities had an intention to prosecute citizens who voted for union with Italy. Napoleon advised the Pope not to do this.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 7.—It is reported that the Sultan is making unusual military preparations; he has purchased a large number of new guns and rifled cannon, and has been strengthening his fortifications.

BERLIN, Nov. 7.—All the lower towns of Schleswig-Holstein have joined the Zollverein except Altona.

FLORENCE, Nov. 7.—Garibaldi had 10,000 troops in the engagement on Sunday. The Papal troops were badly beaten until the arrival of the French, who turned the tide of battle. It is reported that Gen. Fieschi participated in the action.

Cable despatches to date 10th say that the King of Italy demands the recall of the French troops, and finally protests against the proposed conference, consisting of only the Catholic powers. Garibaldi and his principal lieutenants will probably come to the United States. The trial of Garibaldi is postponed. It is considered doubtful whether any Courts have jurisdiction in his case. Popular tumults, incited by Mazzini, had broken out at Milan and other cities. They were promptly suppressed. General discontent prevails throughout Italy. A state of siege is threatened at every large town. The French Government has asked the Papal authorities to release insurgent prisoners. They refuse. The Moniteur admits that the French took part in the last battle. Their Chassepot rifled cannon decided the day against Garibaldi. French loss was 30 killed and wounded. The Papal loss was 12. Garibaldian loss, 60 killed and many wounded, and 220 prisoners. This great slaughter was caused by the Chassepot rifle.

France is seeking a loan of 28,000,000 francs. It is represented that Government desires it for peace uses.

The Porte has replied to the last note of the European powers. He declines to receive advice, and accepts the responsibility for the events which ensue.

Eastern States.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—A private telegram says: New York State has gone 40,000 Democratic majority; New Jersey a Democratic Legislature; Massachusetts, 26,000 Republican; Kansas, female and negro suffrage, beaten 10,000. Illinois and Minnesota, greatly reduced Radical majorities. Maryland has elected Democratic ticket.

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—Election returns are very scattering. The following are probably correct: New York City gives 60,000 De-
