MOREHEAD CITY, N. C., Dec 20-A woman with two children and three men landed yesterday from a large schooner off the bar. The woman is fine-looking and haughty, and is said to be a resident of Si Michael's Island, one of the Azores. She was accused of poisoning her husband and condemned to death, but the sentence was commuted to perpetual bahishment and separation from her children. She possessed vast estates which, through an agent, she converted into money, and securing the co-operation of the schooner captain and crew, obtained her children, bringing her gaoler and two guards, whom she was obliged to bring with her as their lives would have been forfeited by her escape. The mate of the vessel said he received $600 for his share. The woman stated that she intended to go to Boston. landed yesterday from a large schooner off
