-We cannot too strongly urge upon our readers the necessity of subscribing for a family, weekly newspaper of the first class— such, for instance, as The Independent, of New York. Were we obliged to select one publication for habitual and careful reading publication for habitual and careful reading to the exclusion of all others, we should choose unhesitatingly The Independent. It is a newspaper, magazine, and review, all in one. It is a religious, a literary, an educational, a story, an art, a scientific, an agricultural, a financial, and a political paper combined. It has 32 folio pages and 22 departments. No matter what a person's religion, politics or profession may be, no matter what the age, sex, employment or condition may be. The Independent will prove a help, an instructor, an educator. Our readers can do no less than to send a postal for a free specimen copy, or for thirty cents the paper will be sent a month, enabling one to judge of its merits more critically, its yearly subscription is $3.00, or two years for Address.
