A NEW FAMILY MEDICINE,
AND VALUABLE SPRING & FALL PURIFIER.

D. R. BUCHANAN'S
APERIENT AND DIURETIC

TONIC BITTERS.

This medicine is recommended by the first Physicians of Europe and America, as a Remedy and truly the most successful general Family Medicine ever invented. It corrects disorders of the digestive and purificatory system, removes oblique constitution, promotes a proper circulation of the blood in the extremities, strengthens weak vessels, renders the mind cheerful and the body active, invigorates and establishes healthy regularity throughout the entire system, especially in the bowels, and is a great service to the public. It possesses all the properties of Salvia officinalis, including Salsaparilla, which valuable medicinal property was entirely lost till now, by the novel and unique process adopted in the manufacture of Salsaparilla prepared. The absence of Salsaparilla in all the hitherto advertised preparations of Salvia officinalis, is a manifest want of medical confidence in the virtues of Salsaparilla. By a new chemical process, discovered by the World-renowned chemist, Doctor Lister, Salsaparilla is now completely preserved in this medicine; and it also contains, in addition, the purifying and other hygienic virtues of various valuable productions of the vegetable kingdom, in the pure and most concentrated form. It is an alterative, tonic, and purifier.

The preparation acts not kindly on the liver and mucous membranes, corrects and prevents acidity, aids assimilation where greasy articles are used as food, and can put to my kind of convulsion, complicated with defectiveillary secretions, nothing can surpass in its efficacy with rheumatism, and especially so in that which accompanies all varieties of perverted menstruation—so much so, that it will be found a valuable diagnostic where consumption is present. In consumption connected with long continued derangement of the biliary system, termed bile dyspepsia, it will be found a most valuable remedy. It will cure the disease before it begins to do its ravages, and prevent the consequences of fever, when the disease begins to do its work. It is of great value in preventing relapse, by regulating the functions of the bowels and promoting digestion. For the students and others of sedentary habit and employment, it is the very best remedy in the world for obviating constipation, so troublesome and life-damning by its use, that it has been called the sovereign of diseases, and especially so in that which accompanies all varieties of European various classes of society, as well as the sedentary, whose generally more or less of a coarse habit, find this medicine to excel all others; and should it prove inferior to any other, it is to be highly conducive to health of body and mind; it never interferes in the smallest degree with the use of other Bitter Bitters, will not foul the palate, or occasion diarrhoea, especially those arising from impurities of the blood and coagulation—those bane of health and source of manifold diseases—such as Dry-peps—Loss of appetite—Inflammation of the bowels—

constipation—Hæmorrhoids—Flatulence—Pain in the stomach—Pain in the side—Pain in the small of the back—Pain in and between the shoulder-blades—Acidity in the stomach—flatulence—chronic hepatic affection with dropsy—it is the most valuable remedy—also in Spasms— Rheumatism—Unpleasant sensation of fulness after eating—Nausea, or want of flesh in childhood or early youth—Unnatural Malaise, or malignant ulcerated sore throat—Hysterics—Biliousness—

It produces a powerful and lasting impression upon the mind, system and secretory organs, unequalled by any other medicine. The great and continuing power which this medicine exercises on the secretory and excretory organs, makes it a medicine of peculiar properties, as a curative agent, of various complaints and diseases, not mentioned above.

A FAMILY MEDICINE, IT IS SAFE AND EFFICACIOUS, IS WARRANTED TO BE SUPERIOR TO ANY OTHER PRESCRIBED TO THE PHARMA. Indeed, the Bitter is a regular of all the medicines, as far as a general remedy can be. Several families of the highest respectability in Town and neighborhood, have used the medicine and speak of with unabashed approbation.
