"A Prosperous Journey."—Rom. i: 10

From Dr. Maud Killam.

KIA-TING, CHINA, May 29th, 1897.

It is a pleasure to say we have reached Kia-ting, and that two days ago we received a hearty welcome from Mr. and Mrs. Endicott, and also from Dr. and Mrs. Hare, who had arrived two days before us.

This is a lovely place; we were entranced with the beauties of the Yang-tse, but Kia-ting surpasses everything. At the approach to the city we saw the image of the great Buddha cut in the solid rock. He is sitting, and is three or four hundred feet high.* Just before, the hill was crowned

*The height of the spire of St. James' Cathedral is 275.
