

And when the little Kirk they reached,
The Bishop, by desire,
From Presbyterian pulpit preached,
As with a tongue of fire:—

His doctrine was what Christ enjoined:—
That word so pure and true:—
"Be you to one another kind,
"As I have loved you."

W.

The preceding lines are grounded on the story (well known in Scotland), that Archbishop Usher visited Samuel Rutherford, pastor of Anwoth, one Saturday evening; and, having in the meantime made himself known, preached for him the next morning on the text which formed the subject of conversation the evening before.
