TIDES OF BARNEGATby
F. Hopkinson Smith

The greatest story ever written by this author. Against the storm and stormy background of the Barnegat Shore he has drawn a thrilling and absorbing tale of love and self sacrifice, of tragedy and comedy, leading up through sunshine and storm to a tremendous ending. The old Captain, the Doctor, Miss Jane, Lucy and Archie, are people that live and will live. No writer of fiction to-day is better known and liked than Mr. Smith. The great success of the story as a serial in Scribner's Magazine roves its popularity. Illustrated in tint by George Wright. Cloth, $1.25, Paper, .75
