P. SINCLAIR,
No. 11, Fabrique Street.

Prospectus.

SINCLAIR'S JOURNAL OF BRITISH NORTH AMERICA, will be published ONCE A FORTNIGHT.

It will contain 16 PAGES Octavo Royal, making one handsome annual volume of 200 pages.

As it is intended to be devoted exclusively to Literature, everything of a political nature will be excluded from its columns.

The original and selected articles will have for their object the improvement and cultivation of the human mind, and as the best literary talent available in Quebec has been secured, it is confidently hoped that "SINCLAIR'S JOURNAL" may merit a place amongst the best literary works published in British North America.

The terms will be 6s. 3d. per annum, single Nos. 3d.

As this journal will have a large circulation in the country, parties wishing to advertise will find it to their advantage, as a limited space will be kept for that purpose.

PRICE OF ADVERTISING.
